WILL ROGERS SAYS PLANES ARE SAFER THAN RIDING HORSE

(Special To The News)
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Oct. 31.

I knew they would find that so-called lost plane in Arizona. Let me tell you something about these transcontinental airlines as they are conducted today. Getting to the destination doesn't mean anything; it's the safety of the passengers that is their one consideration.

In the last few weeks I have made two trips to the east and back on both the Western Air Express and the Transcontinental Air Transport. One time they set us down in Amarillo when there was bad weather ahead in Wichita, Kan., 300 miles away, and it's the same with all organized passenger lines all over the country. If there is a safer mode of transportation I have never found it. Even horseback I got bucked off the other day.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEW OBSERVES

George Gilbert, R. F. D. No. 7 is another who reports that his 1930 automobile license tags have arrived. He states they are coming through in fine shape. He has had his for nearly two weeks.

City employees were at work this morning grading and rolling dirt streets on the North Hill planning then in shape for the winter. The street department has been working hard during the past month getting the dirt streets in shape for the winter season. Many streets have been as good as new in the past two weeks.

Highway department employees are also extremely busy at the present time getting ready for the winter traffic. Snow fences will be erected, starting next week. Most of the work of repairing the roads where needed has been completed.

South Siders put over a most successful Halloween parade and celebration last night, despite the unfavorable weather. If there's anything that is a little disagreeable, its parading around in a Halloween costume in the rain.

Police officers are putting up ropes along the curb on Washington street this afternoon, to keep the spectators back on the sidewalks tonight. The carway is for the mummies, and spectators must stay back of the ropes. Extra police will be on duty to enforce the rules.

Work has been started on the construction of the lights on the new North to Croton avenue bridge over the Neshannock creek. It is expected that when this work is completed, the new bridge will be adequately lighted. It will be a much needed improvement.

A word to boys of the city. Beware in your Halloween fun tonight that you do not step across the line of mischief into the realm of vandalism. Destruction of property is not necessary to enjoyment of Halloween, and will result in serious trouble.

A young New Castle Miss caused the door and fender of her father's automobile to be torn off, when she miscalculated the distance of a garage door, while putting the car away for the night, recently. Papa didn't spank, she claims.

Soviet Aviators Hit Bad Weather

(International News Service)
DETROIT, Oct. 31.—The four Soviet "good-will" fliers who have covered almost 14,000 miles on a flight from Moscow, apparently have struck a snag in Detroit weather. For the second day, the Land of the Soviets all-metal monoplane this morning was forced to postpone its scheduled take-off for New York.

Daily Weather Report

Weather statistics for the 24-hour period ending at 9 o'clock this morning are as follows:
Maximum temperature, 57.
Minimum temperature, 46.
Precipitation, .23 inches.
River stage, 4.6 feet and rising.

WESTMINSTER IS BEING VISITED

Secretary Of Labor James J.
Davis To Speak Here
Tonight

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., will hold the 1930 state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution and Pittsburgh will hold the 1931 state conference. These cities were selected this morning at the session of the thirty third annual state conference of the organization, meeting in the Cathedral.

The selection of Wilkes-Barre was more in the nature of a ratification. Some months ago that city was tentatively agreed upon and the delegates today confirmed the selection. Following the selection of Wilkes-Barre for the 1930 conference, Pittsburgh presented an invitation for the 1931 conference which was accepted. No other city presented an invitation.

Committee Reports
This morning's session was spent in hearing the reports of committees and the reports of chapter regents. (Continued On Page Six)

Fear 33 Men Lost In Lake

Boats Collide In Lake Michigan In Dense Fog
And Sink

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Thirty-three men were reported drowned in Lake Michigan today off Port Washington, Wis., when the steamers Senator and Marquette rammed together in the dense fog. The Senator sank almost immediately with its entire crew, according to reports reaching Chicago. The men were said to have been sucked into the depths before they even had a chance to launch one lifeboat.

Many of the men were believed to have been under the deck and trapped as the vessel plunged to the bottom. Although the steamer Marquette, itself listing and staggering as water poured into its hold, tried to launch boats to save those on the submerged vessels, their efforts were in vain, fragmentary reports to coast guards here stated.

Coast Fire Damage Runs Into Millions

Terminal Pier Fire At Alameda, Cal., Will Be Enormous Damage Report

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—More than a half million dollars damage had been done and $2,500,000 damage was threatened as flames today continued their destruction of the Encinal Terminal pier in Alameda.

Twenty-five men were overcome by smoke or injured in the first 24-hours of struggle with the fire.

Weather Clears For Celebration

Clearing weather early this afternoon indicated that the Community Halloween celebration which will be held this evening under the auspices of the American Legion would be held under more favorable circumstances than the South Side celebration last evening.
Sunshine and clear weather during the remainder of the afternoon will soon dry the streets up and a fine evening is anticipated by those in charge.

Why Prince Of Wales Has Not Been Married

(International News Service)
LONDON, Oct. 31.—Here is the Prince of Wales' own explanation of why he doesn't marry, as given in an article written by Evelyn Graham in the magazine, "Britannia" and published today. "During 12 hours of every day I have to be what other people want me to be," the writer quotes the Prince. "During the rest of the time I can be myself. If I married, I should have to spend the rest of my time being what my wife wanted me to be."

London, Oct. 31.—The Prince of Wales, the world's most eligible bachelor, is "heart whole and fancy free," and is unmarried simply for the reason that "he wants to be himself," according to his own explanation of his continued celibacy as contained in an interview appearing today in the magazine "Britannia" and "I". The article, written by Evelyn Graham, quotes the Prince directly as telling her:

"During 12 hours of every day I have to be what other people want me to be. During the rest of the time I can be myself. But if I married I should have to spend the rest of my time being what my wife wanted me to be."

The article says that the Prince's eventual bride, assuming that eventually he will marry, must be good looking, but "not a doll-like beauty." Preferably, she must be a brunette and intelligent; she must be a trifle older than the Prince himself, understanding and capable and tactfully "curbing his wilder schemes for amusing himself."

This, so far as the Prince of Wales has indicated his preference as to the type his future bride should be, or pretended to list any of the qualifications she must have to share with him the throne of the world's greatest empire.

CUPID IN PLANE

Ellipses are old as time itself, but aeroplane elopers are more unusual than the common variety. Here is Florence Chappin, pretty Mount Clemens, Mich., miss, one of two girls who eloped with student flyers from Selridge Field and flew to Chicago. They crashed twice—first at a forced landing just before reaching Chicago, and second when they crashed into custody of the police.

South Siders Celebration Is Great Success

Many Cash Prizes Are Awarded To Mummies In Parade

SINGING CONTEST
IS NEW FEATURE

Several Thousand Take Part
In Halloween Celebration

Inclement weather failed to affect the third annual Halloween celebration and parade of the south side merchants. The event, which was a success in every detail was held on Wednesday evening. Several thousand paraded "Slatown" while nearly 5,000 people from all sections of the city watched on.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the mummies, headed by Grand Marshal Edward D. Pritchard, started from Pollock avenue to Reynolds street, down Mill, over to Long, to Sciota, to Reiber, to Moravia, to Long avenue and then back up Long avenue to the Lincoln and Garfield school where the parade disbanded. There the remainder of the program prepared by General Chairman Hartzell Huston was presented. The Legion of Honor Consistory Bugle corps played one selection.

Singing Contest.
Following this a singing contest was held. Small youngsters of the south side participated in this contest and it was a hard task to pick the winner. The contest was so close that it was necessary for the competitors to sing a second time in the gymnasium of the school in front of the judges. The first prize winner was (Continued On Page Two)

Late Senator Theodore Burton Beloved By All Cleveland; Burial This Afternoon

By RALPH G. PLATT

Cleveland, Oct. 31.—A silver-gray casket, bearing the body of Ohio's revered senator, Theodore E. Burton, accompanied by relatives and friends and a governmental cortege, arrived in Union Station here this morning.

Reverently, through long lanes of bare headed, solemn-faced persons, who stood in morning mist from gloomy, overcast skies, the casket was slowly taken to the funeral car in which, under military escort, it was conveyed to public hall to be given the tribute of thousands.

The body of Senator Burton was brought here to lie in state for three hours in public hall amid the scenes of his early political struggles, and finally to be placed in its last resting place at Lakeview cemetery in a plot of ground only a few yards from the grave of his life-long friend, the late ambassador to France, Myron T. Herrick.

Murder Victim Is Found In Brooklyn

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Another gangster murder mystery confronted police today following the finding of an unidentified man in the gutter of a Brooklyn street.
The victim's face, had been beaten black and blue and he had been shot in the back of the head. Apparently he had been thrown from a speeding automobile.

ISSUE BUILDING PERMIT FOR NEW EPWORTH CHURCH

It was announced at the bureau of building, department of engineers, city of New Castle today that the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church had been given a permit for the construction of a new church at Butler avenue and East Washington street.

It is estimated that the construction will cost $130,000. It has not been decided, according to the permit whether the edifice is to be of brick or stone as the permit reads "brick or stone".

It is also reported that the church officials are practically ready to let the contract for excavation.

At present the Epworth M. E. church is in Pearson street.

Washington Surveys Aftermath Of Stock Market's Big Debacle

Democrats Prepare To Make Political Capital Of Situation

Legislation May Put Curb On Stock Market Speculation

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Now that the worst of the stock market debacle is believed over, official and political Washington began today to emerge from the storm-cellars, appraise the damages, assay the results and peer as best it can into what the immediate future holds.

Three Aspects Likely
There were three aspects of the situation today that particularly engaged the attention of the legislative and executive branches of the government.

1.—As a result of the crash, which followed an extended period of high, wide and handsome, public speculation, it is now considered certain that a real effort will be made in the approaching regular session of congress to place a curb on speculative activities. A number of senators are working on legislative methods to accomplish this, among them is Senator Glass (D) of Virginia, a former Secretary of the Treasury, who favors the institution of a special tax, say 5 per cent, on stocks that are turned over within a sixty-day period.

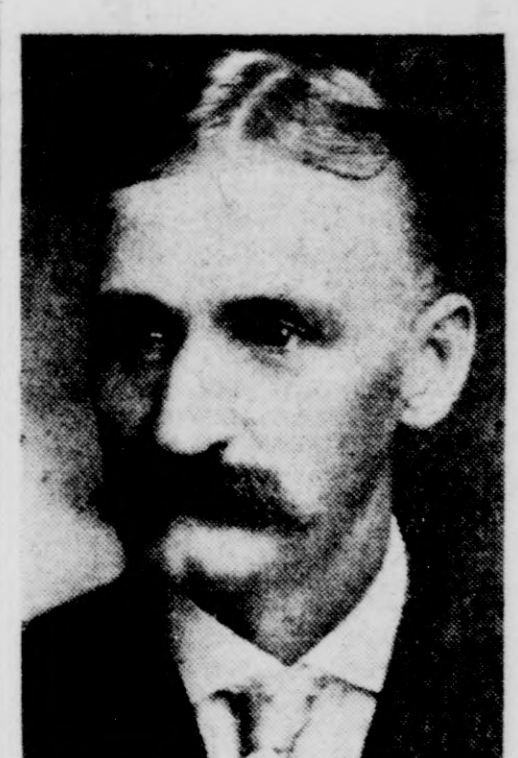

2.—There is real concern felt at the treasury and in administration quarters generally over the enormous shrinkage of governmental income that inevitably will result from the collapse of stock prices. Billions of anticipated profits have been wiped out, and this will automatically be reflected in income tax returns.

3.—The Democrats are going to make as much political capital out of the calamity as they possibly can, with an eye to next year's congress. (Continued On Page Two)

Plans Are Completed For Annual Halloween Parade

PROCESSION WILL

Five Bands To Be In Line
Of March To Aid
Affair

Ugly old witches and their attending trains of imps and hobgoblins ride tonight. Across the sky, as darkness falls will come a horde of long haired old ladies riding astride broomsticks, carrying with them the caldrons that will brew the potions to last another year.

Here in New Castle the folks are ready for the visit and at eight o'clock the Halloween parade will move out in honor of the visiting horde.

In Line At 7:15
The parade will start forming at 7:15 at the Legion Home on North Jefferson street and at eight o'clock Grand Marshal Ivor V. Davis will move out at the head of a five division parade.

Five bands will provide the marching music for the mummers, a judging committee will be waiting for them, to decide which of the mummers deserve a prize, the streets will be well policed, and many of the marchers will carry red fire.

A regular old fashioned Halloween celebration is planned, with all the trimmings that go to make it a success. Even the Weatherman is in sympathy with the idea and has promised that if he possibly can avoid it, there will be no rain for the parade.

The line of march will be from the Legion Home to the Public Square, up Washington to County Line, (Continued On Page Two)

Hickory High Youth Killed By Machine

Youngstown Man Strikes Youth

Death

(International News Service)
SHARON, Pa., Oct. 31.—Coroner William McGrath will hold an inquest tomorrow in the death of Forest Sunderland, 15, a Hickory high school student, who was killed last night when he was struck by an automobile driven by C. S. Rhodes of Youngstown.

Rhodes, who was driving along the Sharon-Mercer road, told police that he felt his car strike something and searched along the road, finding nothing. State Highway Patrolman Elmer McGill was notified and found the boy's body 30 minutes after the accident. It had been thrown in the high grass along the road.

Arthur Mometer

I never saw hobgoblins, nor the witches as they flew, and always must have been asleep when imps were passing through. But this I know they visit us, each year at Halloween, and work among the boys and girls, though never are they seen. The witches ride on brooms, planes, that need no gas or oil, and never do they have to stop, no radiators boil. But on and on they fly at night, and cast their charms and spells, and loaf around deserted barns, and fields and open wells. Tonight, they come to visit us, that's why we all are gay, and garb ourselves in costumes quaint, it's forty-nine today.

Donations For Hospital To Be Given Tomorrow

Ladies Aid Ready For Reception Of Contributions By Friends Of Institution

TWO-DAYS ARE SET ASIDE FOR PURPOSE

Mrs. Edwin F. Norris, chairman of the general committee of the Ladies' Aid of the Jameson Memorial hospital, stated today that all arrangements have been completed for the reception of donations for the hospital, which will be solicited Friday and Saturday.

New Castle residents have always responded in a gracious manner to the appeal for donations for the Shennango Valley hospital in the past, and with the completion of the new Jameson Memorial hospital, with its increased facilities for caring for many more patients, the demand for maintenance has also grown.

Donations of fruit, vegetables, jellies, and canned fruits and vegetables is sought by the Ladies' Aid, to assist with the larger aid at the hospital during the coming year.

These contributions may be left at the hospital or will be called for, if arrangements are made with Mrs. Edwin F. Norris, the chairman of the committee at her residence in the Hillman apartments.

It had originally been planned to have Friday alone set aside as Donation day, but because of the fact that many rural residents who desire to contribute, do not get into town until Saturday, two days were designated for the purpose.

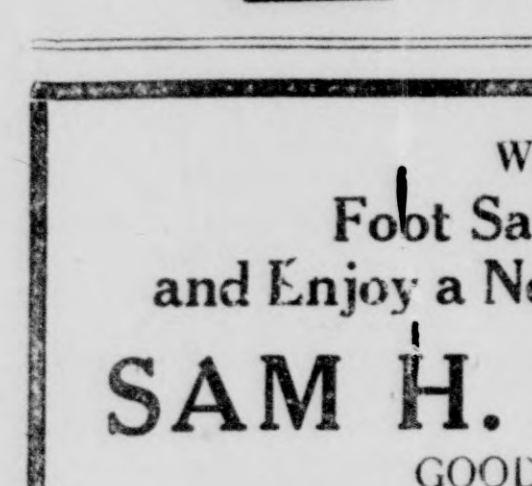

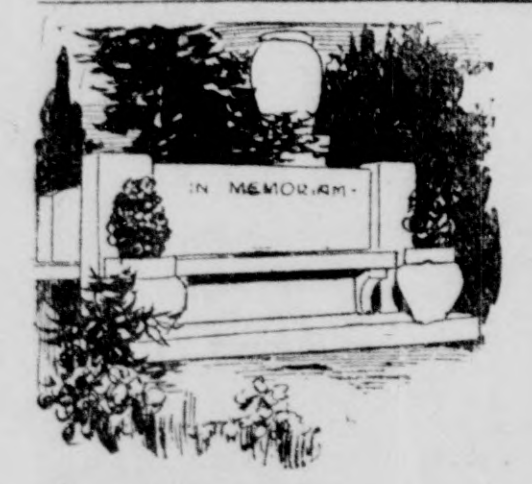

Church Trustees Deny Calling Of Southern Pastor

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Denial that the Rev. Dr. Will Houghton of Atlanta, Ga., has been officially called to fill the pulpit of the Baptist church was made today by the church trustees. The trustees as a special meeting last night were reported as having called Dr. Houghton but it was made plain today that no official action had been taken although it was admitted that Dr. Houghton was being considered for the post left vacant by the death of Dr. John Roach Stratton, nationally known fundamentalist.

Funeral services for Dr. Stratton, who died Tuesday will be conducted tomorrow evening in the auditorium of pythian temple.

sional elections, and the national election of 1932.

Evidence of this latter activity was speedily forthcoming today on the heels of the market's semi-stabilization.

Senator Joe T. Robinson, Democratic leader of the state, who as Gov. Al Smith's running mate last year, writhed under the calm and superior prosperity claims of the Republicans, came out today with a statement in which he laid a major share of the blame for the collapse directly at the door of the Coolidge-Hoover administration.

One other result of the market crash was seen today—it has apparently increased the administration's determination to try to force the tariff bill to enactment. President Hoover has sent word to administration leaders at the Capitol that he wants the tariff bill passed as soon as possible. Hitherto, the White House has preserved silence regarding the bill.

Offices Crowded
At "60 Wall Street," Henry L. Doherty and company, a prominent investment house, the corridors and waiting rooms were jammed with customers when the International News Service reporter pushed his way through. "I want to buy so many shares of such and such," men and women were saying to weary-eyed salesmen.

Nobody seemed to be selling. Everybody was buying, according to an official of the company. Confidence had supplanted fear and hysteria.

Eighty salesmen, worn to the point of exhaustion, were taking orders as fast as they came. They were "all in," having had practically no sleep all week.

At "39 Broadway," John Muir and company, the same situation prevailed. As T. E. Kelly, manager of the auditing department, expressed it:

Not Speculators
"They are coming in with cash. They're not buying on margins. Instead of purchasing 100 shares on one-third margin as they did before the crash they are buying 25 or 30 shares and paying cash."

"They're new customers, for the most part, buying for investment. They're not speculators."

Twenty employees were asleep on cots in the rear of the Muir and company office. As one of the officials remarked, "it's like a six-day bicycle race, these market endurance tests. We're working in shifts two hour shifts. Nobody has time for a real sleep. Those two holidays tomorrow and Saturday will be a God send, even though we have to work."

At every office visited by this correspondent the over-worked employees were looking forward to the double holiday. The board of governors of the New York Stock Exchange and the New York Curb Exchange voted to open at noon today, instead of 10 a. m., and to close the exchanges all day Friday and Saturday to allow the staffs of member firms, many of whom have been on duty continuously for several days to obtain necessary rest.

ter march back down to the Public Square and then disband.

If you're looking for a lot of fun, come down town tonight and get an armful of it.

Requests Of Police Chief
Final plea of Chief of Police C. C. Horner to the public and all motorists to assist in every way possible to make the Halloween celebration the success that it should be this evening, was made this morning.

He asks that all motorists refrain from parking on Washington street between County Line street and the public square and Jefferson street from Washington to Falls streets, also from using those streets from seven o'clock until after the parade, which starts promptly at eight o'clock.

He also asks the sightseers to remain on the sidewalks behind the ropes, where they are located and also where they are not located, in order to give the paraders every possible chance.

He especially requests that the people keep away from the reviewing stand at the northwest corner of the public square, in order that the judges may have every opportunity to pick the best costumes. Those winning will be given tickets there which entitle them to their prizes at the city council chamber later in the evening.

The co-operation of the public along these lines will be appreciated to the utmost by the police.

Every possible additional officer, who can be spared will be used in maintaining order in the parade district.

Salvation Army Entertains Kiddies

The Salvation Army hall was the scene of much merriment Wednesday evening when the children of the Sunday school were entertained at a masquerade party. There was a large attendance and games of all kinds were played and prizes given to the winners in the different contests. The mothers, under the direction of Ensign Mrs. V. Thomsen, served refreshments.

little Jimmy Clause who made a hit with Al Johnson's number "Sonny Boy".

Second prize was awarded Felix Mele. The judges' stand was placed on the corner of South Mill and Long. D. O. Davies and a selected committee handed out the cards which gave the bearer a prize upon presenting it at the Lincoln school gym. Some 120 cash prizes were distributed.

The prizes totaled $300, raised among the merchants of the south side.

Dancing was also another feature in the school yard of the Lincoln school during the evening.

The first prize winner for having the most artistic makeup was Ruth Johnson of Smithfield street, who presented a very clever outfit. It was a makeup of an Eskimo, a hut and several polar bears. For her efforts, Miss Johnson received $10. Second prize was awarded Nellie Smith of South Mill street. She also received $10.

Window Trimming Contest.
The window decorating contest caused plenty of competition among the merchants and it was quite a while before the judges, DeLace Cole and J. F. Connery, picked the winners.

The first prize winner for having the best window decorated with merchandise was won by Harry Cohen. Second prize went to Archie Cohen and third prize to Columbus Clause. The Halloween season window display contest was won by Bright & Clark with second prize going to Huston Hardware. The South Side Hardware won third prize.

After dancing in the school yard the program was concluded at 11 o'clock. The merchants of the south side wish to thank all those who cooperated in making the Halloween celebration such a success as it was last night.

Prize Winners.
The prize winners and the prizes they were awarded follow:

Mr. Eskimo and polar bears, Ruth Johnson, 219 Smithfield street, $10. This was the first prize. Second prize, Nellie Smith, 1116 South Mill street, $10. Peanut and shoe show makeup.

HONOR NILES VET AT TESTIMONIAL

W. L. Richar Who Reaches 70 Wednesday Entertained By Division Men

A number of E. and A. division officials were in Niles last night where Warren L. (Farmer John) Richar, who retires at the close of his work today, was honored at a dinner in his home. Richar has been yard conductor at Niles.

A radio and accessories were presented to him by the group that gathered there last night. Mrs. Richar was presented a beautiful purse in which was $20 in cash. The event last night besides forming a testimonial for the man also marked his 70th birthday anniversary.

Tonight trainmen will entertain for him at a celebration in Niles, honoring him for the 45 years' service he has given to railroads. His first three were spent in the employ of what is now the Baltimore and Ohio, but for the 42 since then he has been an employe of the Pennsy.

stroke and quickly relapsed into unconsciousness. The end was peaceful.

Born in Mercer County.
Mr. Ligo was born in Mercer county, near New Wilmington, in March, 1858, being the son of Samuel and Martha Ligo, pioneer residents of that section. He was one of eleven children. He attended school in Wilmington township, Mercer county, and later learned the trade of a miller, which occupation he followed at a mill near New Wilmington for many years.

He came to New Castle 36 years ago. At first he was engaged in the tobacco business. Later he became associated with the late J. J. Dean in the wholesale grocery business. He had been with the Dean company for 33 years. He was one of the large stockholders of the company, and until about a year ago was president of the company.

During the time he was connected with the J. J. Dean company he became one of the largest figures in the grocery business

BUSINESS HAS THE TRACK

WHEN the highly inflated stock market bubble broke President Hoover and many business leaders made haste to assure the public that business conditions are sound.

They feared the psychological effect of the collapse if it were not made plain that there is no direct connection between business and speculation.

The sudden fall in stock values emphasized once more the contrast that has existed for several years between the careful and orderly operations in trade and industry as a whole and the exaggerated expectations and frenzied activities of the speculative fraternity.

The worst that can be said now of industry is that there has been some slackening in basic lines. The pace of automobile output was too heavy even for the increase in home sales and the very large gain in foreign demand. The steel industry suffers principally from its loss of automobile business. In other branches of consumption increases are noted.

Into the long-expanding bubble were going the surplus earnings of millions of men and women to the loss of local business and manufacturers in general. Now that the bubble is no more these earnings may be diverted into channels that will more directly and immediately benefit the business that talks in terms of wages and industrial and commercial growth.

Collapse of stock speculation should bring several other outstanding benefits. Among these are reduced credit danger, easier money, fewer unsound merger and chain promotions, and more attention by business men to business itself instead of to the tape.

A EERIE NIGHT

This sophisticated and materialistic world no longer believes in ghosts, good fairies, witches and magic charms but this has not detracted at all from the traditional observance of Halloween, the eve of All Saints' Day and the night on which the shadowy denizens of the spirit world return to earthly haunts.

So this evening when night draws her curtain across the world the unbelieving worldlings will supplant the "real" ghosts, black cats and broomstick witches with a make-believe eerie realm of cut paper, noise makers and pumpkin faces. Halloween parties, street carnivals with masks, costumes and frank-playing have universal permission to monopolize the spotlight. And as the witching hour of twelve draws near there will be some unfaithful ones glancing covertly back at their shifting shadows and jumping at every squeak of the chamber stairway. After all, Halloween wouldn't be half so much fun if there was no superstition attached to it and the fact that it is now all superstition of suggestion does not make it any less effective for the purposes of Allhallow night.

In its merrymaking let not the community forget the double significance of this night. Primarily this will be an observance of All Saints' eve, but it is also a harvest celebration. The frosty pumpkin, the rustling corn shock and the bobbing apple play an important part in this nocturnal celebration and inseparably link Halloween with the harvest time.

A wit has pointed out that the good saints have shown rare wisdom by making their annual pilgrimage back to earth in the heart of the harvest season.

A WOR'H-WHILE CONTEST

Long ago the public's appetite for endurance contests was surfeited. Waves of flag-pole sitting, dancing, talking, eating, refueling flights and a score of other types of endurance tests have swept the country. At first all were spectacular, but those productive of no permanent good were soon tired of.

Now there is to be set before the nation an endurance contest that deserves attention for no other reason than that it promises constructive results. There will be nothing spectacular about this one.

Under the direction of the Associated Industries of New York state there is to be conducted a "no-accident-contest" to determine which firm in the state can operate longest without an accident. More than 1,300 enterprises, employing 300,000 workers, will take part.

Here is a contest in which every contestant will win. While the special awards will go only to two concerns, every entrant will claim precious prizes in the form of fewer workers maimed and killed, economies through accident reduction, and the satisfaction that comes from the knowledge that real progress is being made in the movement to abolish industrial accidents.

One of the big problems in accident-prevention is keeping the minds of workmen alert. The no-accident contest is admirably designed to solve this problem because of its appeal to the competitive spirit.

REDISCO'ERING THE INDIAN

The American Indian has had the fate of many conquered peoples, in that he has been made a hero in fiction after being made a villain and a victim in fact. The earliest white settlers, indeed, talked for a time about saving the natives for the kingdom of heaven, but they soon came to the conclusion that the best way to do that was to send the redskins there.

The gunpowder method of conversion simplified the problem of who was to occupy the country which had been occupied by the Indians. But when the original Americans had ceased, by becoming more or less extinct, to be any particular menace, the chivalrous disposition of the conquerors asserted itself. They discovered that the sons of the forest had been children of nature, with all the virtues which the eighteenth century sentimentally ascribed to natural men, still uncorrupted by the dread influence of civil institutions.

In dealing with the Indian question, which has come to the fore in Washington, the country should not treat it as merely a matter of conservation, analogous to the conservation of the buffalo and preservation of virgin forests and other natural wonders. The white man's superiority complex is likely to cause him to look upon his copper-skinned brothers as curios to be preserved only that pale-face curiosity may be satisfied and in the interests of anthropology.

Charity also covers a multitude of skin games.

A cynic is a man who mistakes cheerfulness for ignorance.

Today

Wall Street Again.
And All Sorrowful.
Ex-Imagination.
Al Smith Asks A Question.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE (Copyright, 1929, King Features Syn., Inc.)

Another sad day for millions. The most numerous gentlemen in the world are going to happen and will never forgive him—self for not having sold short stocks that he knew had to drop. He mentions those that have had the biggest losses.

Later, he'll probably make up his mind to sell some stock short, and still later, he'll regret it.

Wall street finds new expressions for new conditions. Stocks sometimes sell "ex-dividend" and "ex-rights." Brokers say they are now selling "ex-imagination."

When sold "ex-dividend," stocks usually drop the amount of the dividend. Sold "ex-imagination," there is no limit to the drop, for the imagination of the gambler is powerful.

It used to be said, "Wise man, take your profits." That has changed to "Wise man, take your losses," meaning, don't sell in a panic and regret at leisure.

On Monday, Wall street noticed a good deal of "Box Selling," which means selling of stocks, not by speculators and gamblers, but selling from safe deposit boxes, stocks that had been bought for permanent investment.

Washington says stock market difficulties are due to "mob psychology." They are due to the fact that 20,000,000 people started gambling all at once and the same 20,000,000 tried to sell stocks all at once.

The condition in Wall street is like that following the cry of "fire" in a theater. Soon a good many millions will wish they had remained quiet in their seats, refusing to be stampeded.

Ex-Gov. Smith, recently candidate for President on the Democratic ticket, sent this message to a Democrat meeting in Massachusetts yesterday: "Will they blame the stock market on the Democrats?"

"AL."

Many that voted for Gov. Smith said Tuesday, "If Smith had been elected, it would have been the Al Smith panic."

Those that foolishly talk about a national panic will please remember that the income of this nation is one hundred billion dollars a year.

All that the people may lose now in the stock market they can pay for in a year or two if they will stop gambling and save some money.

The late Dr. John Roach Straton, absolute fundamentalist, believed that the whale swallowed Jonah, and the latter was unaffected by the latter's gastric juice; also that Joshua stopped the sun in its trip around the world, although the sun doesn't go around the world.

Many that think themselves intellectually superior to the earnest clergyman can envy him one thing.

He died convinced a limitless reward and eternal bliss would be his the moment his heart stopped beating.

It takes a good deal of modernist science to compensate for that feeling.

Two more great oil fields have been found, one in Texas, one in Kansas. And it is called "a misfortune harmful to the price of oil stocks."

It ought to mean general satisfaction, proving the limitless wealth of this country. Unfortunately, oil companies and government combined have not learned to protect oil resources and prevent criminal waste.

The Pacific relations conference opened in Kyoto with two unpleasant notes.

There were Chinese attacks on Japan and her policies. And the Japanese Viscount Shibusawa said the wound caused by American exclusion of Asiatic emigration, "so heedlessly reflecting on our national honor, is still open and will remain open until the matter has been rightly settled."

That wound may be open, but it should not be. There is great respect for Japan in this country, and our exclusion program is practically a confession of inability to meet Japanese competition here at home.

Incidentally, United States exclusion laws are no more severe than those enforced by the British government in Canada, less severe than those in force in Australia and New Zealand.

And Japan says little about exclusion of Japanese immigration by her recent ally, the British Empire.

Fish, dipped in a salt solution, four degrees Fahrenheit, "are frozen hard as wood within four seconds, without changing a fibre of the fish, and the fish is covered with a coat of crystallized salt."

You are told that fish thus preserved keep nine months without changing, and the taste cannot be distinguished from fresh fish.

It is hard to realize what the world owes to refrigeration, and to the methods of preserving food.

Happy thought! Business men keep contracts. And since they make the wars, why not let them make the peace treaties?

Republicans aren't so ungrateful. They wait until a great man is dead before writing biographies to show how sorry he was.

The star couldn't carry the ball without his interference, and the buyer of a lonely and bad road he got stuck in a bad place, wondering what to do and no help around, he spied

The cigar smoking, pajama wearing, gin drinking bad girls are getting the best of it from juries in different parts of the country. If some of them had what was coming to them they would be in the jailhouse themselves. If any prudent doubts this let them take a look into the night clubs of any city of the larger class. Don't ask us how we know because we will tell you the truth.

In the spring of 1765 the British Parliament passed "The Stamp Act" which law provided that all deeds, notes, bills and other legal documents should be written on special stamped paper furnished by the British revenue officers and that the law should become effective November—of that year.

The city council can make any improvements it desires without the citizens giving their consent by a vote. In such cases the cost will be levied in a few years by direct taxation. By the bond route it is spread over a period of years and those opposed to bond issues have a chance of dying before it is all paid.

"The Stamp Act" caused great indignation among the colonists, who declared that "Taxation without representation is tyranny." The first Colonial Congress met in New York City, October 7, 1765 when a "Declaration of Rights" was framed and forwarded to the King of England.

A man serving a life sentence for murder has been set free because a woman, whose testimony convicted him, had confessed that she lied. And there are some who think the death penalty and a good hot hell are not a good thing!

When your property needs
Fixing up, you fix it.
Even if you have to Borrow the Money.
This is the same case
With your city.
If they're not fixed
Up they depreciate
In Value.
This is not so good!

Last Sunday several churches in Pittsburgh celebrated Family Day with great success. Whole families went to church together, which is not often the case. Not a bad idea to put into action in any city.

On January 17, 1770, the British soldiers cut down a Liberty Pole erected by the "Sons of Liberty" in New York City. In the riot that followed, one citizen was killed and several wounded. This was the first offering made in the great war for independence that followed.

Some look at the death column in a newspaper the first thing and are often disappointed. Then they look at the next trouble column which is the marriages. Some birds are always looking at the dark side of life.

On March 5, 1770 a guard of British soldiers was so provoked when peered by a crowd of men and boys, as they marched along the streets of Boston, that they fired, killing three and wounding several persons. This is known as the "Boston Massacre."

HE WAS ALRIGHT

An Eastern farmer, who was touring the West, happened one day to get of his course, wandering down through a lonely and bad road he got stuck in a bad place, wondering what to do and no help around, he spied mission of a felony who fails to notify or warn the authorities, is subject to the penalty of three years in a Federal prison—which in turn automatically makes that one a felon. "How many congressmen and senators who voted to make felons of hundreds of thousands of their fellow citizens are themselves guilty of this offense?"

Modernism: If it's naughty, it's news.

In the early morning hours of May 10, 1775 Allen with a small number of husky riflemen from the Green Mountains appeared before Fort Ticonderoga which was held by the British and demanded a surrender. The surprised General asked: "By whose authority do you demand the surrender of the fort?" and Allen replied: "In the name of the great Jehovah and the Continental Congress." The Americans were given possession without gun play.

Your superiors are those you delight to catch in error.

OHIO YOUTHS FIND 'BABY' TALK COSTLY
"Come on, baby, let's ride" may be all right in Youngstown, but it costs $25 in Pittsburgh.

David Gillett, 22, admitting in Morale Court Saturday that he thus addressed Miss Teresa Mozof, 17, of 705 Lorenz avenue, in a West End street, said:

"That would never be noticed in Youngstown," opined Gillett.

"But here, it means $25 or 30 days," Magistrate A. D. Brandon replied.

Anthony Fullerman, 22, driving the car, was fined $10.

Some people are cheerful losers and others can't act.

The Daughters of the American Revolution, who are the honored guests of New Castle today are descendants of those heroic men and women who under God brought forth the Declaration of Independence, established the United States of America, designed and unfurled the glorious "Stars and Stripes" and recorded our name throughout the world.

Several Greene county youths have been arrested for taking copper from the mines. We know of several men who took some copper and were never able to turn it so it still remains sunk in the mine.

If you have not already done so, put out your flag at home or at your place of business. The D. A. R. do not require this patriotic display as like the army they make a place for themselves; but the people need this demonstration to show where they stand.

Daily Editorial Digest

Symposium of Editorial Views By Newspapers of Nation on Important Subjects as Edited by Consolidated Press Association

Few Predictions Are Made Of Success Of Debentures

Senate Action Making Plan Part Of Tariff Bill Is Viewed
By Some Editors As Inspired By Desire To Create Trading Material

While the Senate made the debenture plan in modified form a part of the pending tariff bill, this piece of legislation has few supporters in the press. Some comments uphold the suggestion that it has been adopted as trading material in connection with tariff legislation. A few hold that it is a logical part of a tariff bill.

Considering the economic question, the CHARLESTON EVENING POST (Ind. Dem.) calls the scheme "sound only relatively to the protective tariff" and "a matter of balance." That paper argues: "If a tax can be put on imports to support an industry, a bounty can be put on exports in support of another. If the farmer has to pay a fancy price for his supplies in order that the manufacturer shall not have to face foreign competition, there is no reason why he should not be compensated for his product when he sells it abroad at the foreigners' price, according to his market. Which is not to say that the debenture plan is sound economics per se. It is, of course, not so."

The political phase is discussed by the PITTSBURGH POST-GAZETTE (Rep.), with the statement that "many will continue to hold to the belief that a number of those behind the plan are simply playing politics," and that "the public approval given the House when it passed the proposal off before should be sufficient to cause it to do so again." The SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE (Ind.) asks: "When the debenture has had its fling, will its half-brother, the equalization fee, be dragged from its ceremonies and tacked on to the tariff bill? Of course, the equalization fee has nothing to do with the tariff, but that doesn't make any difference. It would give the obstructionists something to talk about a while longer."

"Obvious, childish politics, not working to any constructive purpose, mainly inspired by opposition to the administration," declares the KANSAS CITY STAR (Ind.) while the CLEVELAND NEWS (Ind. Rep.) calls the move "a sample of cheap obstructionism which is not going to gain the approval of the country." The COLUMBUS EVENING DISPATCH (Ind.) views the plan as pointing to "the death of the present bill," and the NEW YORK EVENING POST (Ind.) suggests: "The country doesn't care much anyway, whether the tariff passes or not. It doesn't care whether the dominant popular opinion would heartily approve Herbert Hoover if he simply junked the whole bill."

That the bill as it now appears is likely to be killed is the opinion of the MILWAUKEE JOURNAL (Ind.), and the PASADENA STAR-NEWS (Rep.). Predictions of veto are made by the SOUTH BEND TRIBUNE (Ind. Rep.), the BROOKLYN DAILY EAGLE (Ind.), the CHARLOTTE OBSERVER (Ind. Dem.), the SEATTLE DAILY TIMES (Ind. Rep.), and the PROVIDENCE JOURNAL (Ind.). The LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL (Ind.), agreeing to this view, states: "A veto would leave the President with legislative power conferred upon him by the Fordney-McCumber Act, power which he sets such great store by."

As viewed by the ROANOKE WORLD NEWS (Ind. Dem.), "The action of the Senate coalition served notice on the White House in unmistakable fashion that the alliance between the Democrats and the Western bloc is reckoned with as the deciding factor before any tariff bill becomes law." That paper, however, sees little prospect of debenture legislation, stating that, "in fact, many of the Democratic Senators who voted for it will not be sorry to see it stricken out in conference," that "they do not believe in it and only voted for it as a sop to their new allies and for the additional purpose of bedeviling and embarrassing the Smoot-Watson-Reed faction."

The AKRON BEACON JOURNAL (Rep.), condemning "excessive protective schedules," adds that "those who were insisting upon this type of treatment for protected industry really invited the reprisals the radicals in the Senate are making and should not complain."

General condemnation of debentures is stressed by the CINCINNATI ENQUIRER (Ind.), WHEELING INTELLIGENCER (Rep.), SPRINGFIELD REPUBLICAN (Ind.), and DETROIT NEWS (Ind.), while the NEW YORK SUN (Ind.) says: "Those Senators who once intimated that their watchword was no debenture, no farm relief, appear to have amended the slogan to no debenture, no tariff revision." This is a challenge which the President, the House of Representatives and the nation at large can afford to accept.

"With perverse persistence," declares the BIRMINGHAM NEWS (Dem.), "the Senate adheres to its unsound views on this subject. Instead of embarrassing the President, the latest action should tend to awaken sympathy in Mr. Hoover's behalf. Instead of impairing the President's prestige, what the Senate now does provides Mr. Hoover with fresh opportunity for strengthening his popularity in circles where popularity is valuable." The INDIANAPOLIS NEWS (Ind.) thinks that "the inference would seem to be that the chief purpose in the minds of the 14 Republicans and 28 Democrats who voted for the debenture amendment was to make impossible the passage of the bill."

The purpose to make the legislation material for use in trading is seen by the SIOUX CITY TRIBUNE (Ind.), BANGOR DAILY COMMERCIAL (Rep.), NEW ORLEANS TIMES-PICAYUNE (Dem.) and CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER (Ind. Dem.). The SYRACUSE HERALD (Ind.) offers the appraisal of the situation: "The final result may easily be the failure of the 71st Congress to enact any general tariff measure. However, such a result, though unpalatable to the administration wing of Congress, would, on the whole, be more satisfactory to that wing than to the Democratic-Progressive coalition. It would deprive the Democrats of a coveted issue for 1930. As to the Progressives, they would be obliged to contemplate the continuance of the Fordney-McCumber tariff, including its elastic proviso and minus any debenture subsidy."

That the plan is just an alien rider on the tariff bill is not true, asserts the SAVANNAH MORNING NEWS (Dem.). "If the debenture idea belongs anywhere, it belongs in a tariff bill, simply because it is just the opposite of tariff. A tariff duty is something that is paid to the government on commodities brought into the country; an export debenture is something the government pays on commodities exported from the country."

LINES ABOUT GRAND CANYON
MULES

Oh, feed him well before we start,
Give him of oats and hay enough,
I have no wish, when we depart,
To watch him dine off verdant bluff.

You say the mule is sure of foot,
And I believe the statement true,
But mules which reach for herb and root
From narrow ledges "chill me through."

I've every confidence in him,
I'd trust my life unto my guide,
But on a dreadful chasm's rim
I'm somewhat nervous when I ride.

Great precipices as a rule
Are fearful things in sun or shade,
Which proves, of course, I'm not a mule
Or I should walk them unafraid.

But when two feet below the edge
A patch of green my mule can see,
And reaches for it from the ledge
He makes a nervous wreck of me.

It somewhat dims my joy in scenes
Of splendor mighty canyons show
To have my mule reach down for greens
Which in the walls of chasms grow.

I know there's many a morsel sweet
Along that narrow winding track,
But can't you tell him not to eat,
At least while I am on his back?

A STRANGE JEWEL

Black pearls found on the shores of islands in the Gulf of Lower Mexico have been exported since the days of Cortez.

In the year 1715, more than a thousand ounces of them were shipped to Spain. Some of these are now in the Spanish crown, and in the cathedrals of Toledo and Seville are strings and clusters of these pearls that early explorers took from the Indians.

During recent years few black pearls of great value have been discovered along the western coast of Mexico, although in 1909 one the shape of a bird's egg was brought up by a diver. It weighed forty-two carats, and was colored a greenish black at the base, shading to gray at the smaller end. It was later sold in Paris for $5,000.

OPEN MEETING OF D. A. R. AT CATHEDRAL TONIGHT

Secretary Davis To Make Address

Expect Large Crowd To Attend Meeting In Cathedral Auditorium

OPPORTUNITIES TO BE DAVIS' THEME

Climaxing the 33rd annual conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, a cabinet member under three Presidents, will address a public mass meeting in the Cathedral auditorium tonight, which meeting is open to all without cost.

For his subject Secretary Davis has selected "Life's Opportunities as Offered to Us in America", and with the colorful background he has himself this subject should be most timely. Rising from a poor immigrant boy to the high office of secretary of labor for the President of the United States, Secretary Davis is an exemplification of what opportunities America offers.

Musical Program to Precede
Preceding the address of Secretary Davis will be a musical program. Mrs. Jessie Nelson Reed will present a half hour organ concert on the Green memorial organ and Miss Mary R. Clarke and Mrs. Helen Urmon Felch will be heard in a program of songs.

Because of the Halloween celebration in the downtown district the address of Secretary Davis will be held back until about 9:15 in order to allow people to come from the celebration to the Cathedral.

It is anticipated that the address of Secretary Davis will begin about nine fifteen this evening. This to accommodate men and women who will be down town for the Halloween parade, but who will want to hear the secretary also.

The Cathedral auditorium has 3,500 seats and it is hoped that it will be crowded for this outstanding event. The evening's program will be in charge of Mrs. Joseph M. Caley, state regent, and she will introduce Secretary Davis.

D. A. R. State Conference Hears Leader Who Raised Constitution Hall Fund

Constitution Hall, Located on the Parkway, South of the White House, Washington, D. C.

Raising a million dollars is a task that brings up visions of big business men around a mahogany table, pompous looking gentlemen smoking big black cigars, and an air of grave dignity that fits a sum so prodigious.

In some cases the picture is even

MRS. RUSSELL WILLIAM MAGNA

tirely wrong and this applies particularly to Constitutional Hall, the national monument of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which was recently consecrated in Washington, D. C.

Little Golden Haired Woman
The dynamo back of the drive was not any group of sombre business men, but a rather tiny little woman with a wealth of golden hair and an infectious smile, Mrs. Russell William Magna, of Holyoke, Mass. In size she is one of the smallest women attending the 33rd annual state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution, but in achievement she is a giant.

Some years ago $60,000 was needed for a girls' dormitory for the International College in Springfield, Mass. With little ado about it Mrs. Magna went out and raised the $60,000 and the dormitory was built.

The ease with which she did it attracted national attention and she was appointed national chairman for Constitutional Hall money raising, but this time $1,000,000 was needed.

Touring the country at her own expense, she galvanized the various chapters of the D. A. R. into action and raised the million dollars, finishing her campaign with a whirlwind appeal from the platform of the last Continental Congress.

Magnificent Building
In appearance Constitutional Hall is a magnificent thing. It is a splendid addition to Washington's already large list of beautiful buildings, and although it is not entirely completed, it is being used for the national headquarters of the D. A. R. The library will also be housed in it, and the present library of 18,000 volumes is expected to be doubled.

Pennsylvania has contributed $65,673 to the money needed for the building and a remarkable feature of the drive is that not one dollar is expected to be lost through shrinkage of pledges. In cash and pledges $1,020,000 is in sight, but nearly a half million more is needed.

The acoustic properties of the auditorium are said to be so efficient that an ordinary tone of voice on the platform is heard throughout the hall.

Mrs. Magna made a report of her work to the conference of the D. A. R. in the Cathedral Wednesday and said that money is now needed for furniture and fixtures.

The wonderful success of the drive for $1,000,000 has made Mrs. Magna a national figure in D. A. R. circles. She is librarian-general of the organization and in addition to the D. A. R. belongs to the Boston Colony of New England Women, Colonial Daughters of the Seventeenth Century, Connecticut Valley Historical Society, Daughters of American Colonists, Daughters of Colonial Wars, Daughters of the Union, Ex-Regents Club of Massachusetts, Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants, New York Society of Mayflower Descendants, New England Historical Genealogical Society, Old Glory Club, Sulgrave Institution, Valley Forge Historical Society, Women's Press Club of New York, Business and Professional Women's Club of Boston and the League of American Pen Women in Washington.

She is known also as a writer of prose and verse and is the author of two published books.

Delegates To Conference Visit Old Main Memorial

WESTMINSTER "OLD MAIN MEMORIAL"

Delegates to the thirty-third annual state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution which closes Friday afternoon will go to New Wilmington this afternoon to visit Westminster college.

Interested as they are in education, the delegates were most pleased to accept the invitation of President W. Charles Wallace to inspect the college and at 3 o'clock they will leave New Castle in motor buses.

Old Main Memorial hall which was recently opened and dedicated will be the center of attraction and this building will be inspected from one end to the other. The other buildings will also be visited but the center of attraction will be Old Main Memorial.

A tea will be given the delegates with Mrs. W. Charles Wallace wife of the president and Mrs. Charles Barr Robertson, dean of The Hillside as joint hostesses. The tea will be held in The Hillside.

Auto Driver Is Hurt In Accident Directly In Front Of Hospital

Norman Patterson in meeting with an accident with his automobile Wednesday afternoon about three o'clock, has the unusual experience of landing on the property of the Jameson Memorial hospital on Wilmington avenue.

Just how the accident occurred is not known, but his machine went up over the curb, in front of the nurses' home, breaking off both front wheels. He was unconscious when removed from the car, and was removed at once to the Jameson Memorial hospital, where on examination, it was thought that his injuries were not of a serious character.

Captain J. Ed. Elder and Officer Charles Longstreth of the police force answered the call and assisted in clearing up the wreckage and removing the injured man.

Other Accidents
Tony Ostrowsky of 36 Bluff street, was enroute north on North Liberty street near the intersection of Orchard street today when a car driven by Howard Turner in the same direction and in front of the Ostrowsky car, stalled. Mr. Ostrowsky could not stop his car before it struck the machine in front. Both cars were damaged and Mr. Ostrowsky sustained an injury of the upper lip and both knees.

Harold Hannon of 109 Phillips Place, reported Wednesday to the police that he was enroute north on South Mill street at Phillips street, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license D75-425 going south on Mill street made a left hand turn onto Phillips street in front of his machine and they came together. Both machines were damaged.

George T. Ryan of 405 1/2 Bell avenue, reported Wednesday that he was going west on West Washington street, when his machine was in a collision with a car bearing Pennsylvania license E 83-078 which turned onto Washington street from North Beaver street in front of his car. Both machines were damaged.

M. J. Dann of Warren, O. reported Wednesday that his machine was forced into a telephone pole by the car of J. Ely of Cleveland, O. at the intersection of State and Grant streets. His machine was badly damaged.

Clarence McFarland of R. D. No. 9 reported Wednesday that he was turning onto Croton avenue from South Mill street, when a car, the license of which he did not secure, hit and damaged the rear of his car.

street, reported today that her machine skidded into a street car on South Mill street near Croton avenue. Her machine was damaged.

J. G. Bender of 1405 North Mercer street, reported Wednesday that his machine was in a collision on Luton street hill with a car bearing Pennsylvania license B10-418.

ACTIVITY REPORTS ARE PRESENTED TO DELEGATES TODAY

Mrs. J. G. Forney, National Chairman of Magazine, presented an urgent plea for the members to get on the subscription list and read the magazine.

As a courtesy to Lawrence Chapter, the local chapter report was heard first. Acting for the Regent, Mrs. James Tolles Ray, Miss Sara Newell presented the report showing the activities of the past year.

She was followed by the regents of the various chapters over the state, each report occupying about three minutes.

The afternoon session convened at 1:30 in order that the work of the conference could be accomplished in time for adjournment at three o'clock when the delegates were to be taken to New Wilmington, as guests of Westminster College. A tea and reception are scheduled at the Hillside, with Mrs. W. W. Wallace and Mrs. Charles Barr Robertson, joint hostesses.

In appreciation of the service of The New Castle News in publishing the detail of the conference, the session this morning passed an unanimous resolution of thanks to Fred L. Rentz, president of The News. The motion was presented by Mrs. Edward G. Caghey, State Chairman of Publicity.

Gluttony kills more than the sword and is the kindlier of all evils—Patrius, Bishop of Gaeta.

State Conference Delegates Are Guests At Reception

MRS. GRACE PHILLIPS JOHNSON

As a graceful gesture to the national officers and delegates of the Daughters of the American Revolution who are attending the 33rd annual conference in session here, Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson held a reception and tea at her home at 221 Moody avenue Wednesday afternoon.

In order to attend the reception and tea, the conference adjourned for the day at 3:45 and the delegates were taken to Mrs. Johnson's home. Here they enjoyed the hospitality of their hostess from 4 until 6 o'clock.

Tea was poured by Mrs. G. G. Stitzinger and Miss Jennie L. Morgan. Aides were Mrs. E. L. Stitzinger, Mrs. Alon W. Shewman, Mrs. A. Hughes Bartlett, Mrs. William Cobau, Miss Margaret Toepfer, Miss Sara Newell, Miss Virginia Weinschenk, Miss Eleanor Fulton and Miss Jessie T. Ray. In the receiving line were Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. James Tolles Ray, regent of Lawrence chapter, D. A. R.; Mrs. James M. Caley, state regent; Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart, national president-general, and other state and national officers.

Brilliant State Dinner Marks D. A. R. Conference; Dr. W. C. Wallace Speaks

Seldom has the dining room of the Cathedral seen a more colorful gathering than that of Wednesday evening, October 30, when some 400 members of the Daughters of the American Revolution gathered for the annual state banquet. Colorful it was, and to those present, highly interesting, the feature of every state conference looked forward to with anticipation.

The speaker of the evening was Dr. W. Charles Wallace, president of Westminster college, and orator that he is, Dr. Wallace made the most of a rather unusual opportunity. Speaking on "The Genius and Opportunities of the Daughters of the American Revolution" he pointed out the remarkable opportunities of the organization for the upbuilding and perpetuating of those ideals for which their ancestors fought.

"To Perpetuate Memory," Taking for his life motif one of the tenets of the organization, "to perpetuate the memory of the spirit of the men and women of the American Revolution," Dr. Wallace referred to such writers as Martineau and Ruskin to illustrate his points.

"The majesty of spirit is the greatest thing they left to us," he said, "and it is this majesty of spirit that you must perpetuate. Modern critics have mentioned a leaning towards an autocracy in the organization, and if there is anything to it, it might be the stress laid upon the lineage requirements. Against such autocracy you find an antidote in the lives of the men who fought in the Revolution."

Dr. Wallace congratulated the women upon their work in the marking of old trails, in the placing of a window in Valley Forge chapel, and their work in Americanization and among the immigrants who land at Ellis Island.

He urged upon them the necessity of keeping ever in mind the "majesty of the spirit" and prophesied that with this in mind they could and would be responsible for generations that would stand for the very best in government.

Mrs. Caley in Charge.

State Regent Mrs. Joseph M. Caley was in charge of the dinner and was seated in the middle of the raised speakers' table. On each side of her were state and national officers and at intervals along the table were huge baskets of chrysanthemums and roses. The table decorations were also of "mums".

Other speakers who made brief addresses were National President-General Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart, who spoke on Constitution Hall, and Mrs. Adam Wyant of Washington, D. C., who spoke on the finances of the hall. Mrs. N. Howland Brown spoke briefly upon the memorial window in the Valley Forge chapel.

Just before the close of the dinner the delegates presented a high tribute to Mrs. James Tolles Ray, regent of the Lawrence chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution and general chairman of the 33rd conference. Her work as general chairman has been of an unusually high character and the delegates showed their appreciation of the efficiency which has marked every part of the program.

Music was furnished by an orchestra headed by Elsa Von Moltke Emery and the dinner was served by the women of the Windolans. At the close of the dinner the national president-general, Mrs. Lowell Fletcher Hobart, left for North Carolina where she will visit the state organization of the Daughters of the American Revolution there.

Bedridden Six Months

I Am Now Doing My Own Housework.

I was all run down with nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart (often getting back in the face and thought to be dying), and for six months I was confined to my bed. A relative of mine who had been troubled with female weakness and nervous prostration and had been cured by Thompson's Barosma, recommended it to me. I began to take the Barosma at once and was not only cured of nervous prostration and palpitation of the heart, but began to gain back my flesh, and from that time on until now have been perfectly well, doing my own housework.—Mrs. Ely M. Delegates To D. A. R. Meeting Hear Of Work Done During Year

STATE VICE REGENT MAKES ADDRESS

Reports of committees and the various state officers occupied the short time the thirty-third annual state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution was in session Wednesday afternoon in the Cathedral.

The session was opened with the bugle call by Russell C. Melvin followed by the State Song, directed by Mrs. Ira Springer, the composer. Mrs. Joseph M. Caley, State Regent then called for the various reports of committees, listed among which were the following.

Committee Reports

The State Recording secretary, Mrs. John Walter Wells gave a detailed report of the records of the organization, dealing with membership. Mrs. Herman E. Baumer, State Corresponding secretary dealt with the contacts between the state and chapter organizations.

The State Treasurer, Mrs. Keyser Per reported expenditures of over $12,000.00 for the year and a balance of nearly $1500.00 in the treasury. Mrs. Ira R. Springer, the chairman of the Auditing committee confirmed the report of the state treasurer.

The State Librarian Mrs. Joseph G. Forney told of the many new books added to the library shelves during the year and urged the chapters to send in more historical books that could be added. Mrs. Harold O. White, State Historian told of the various activities of the organization during the year in placing markers and dedicating historical monuments.

Mrs. William H. Alexander, State Vice Regent was then presented to the conference by State Regent Mrs. Joseph M. Caley, and spoke briefly upon the work of the D. A. R.

The state directors, Mrs. Frederick C. Durant of the Eastern District, Mrs. J. King McLanahan, Jr., of the Central District and Mrs. Eddie Arthurs of the western district were presented and spoke briefly.

Various other committee heads were presented and addressed the conference.

At four o'clock the conference adjourned for the reception and tea which was held in the home of Mrs. Charles H. Johnson of Moody avenue.

Famous War Dog Reported A. W. O. L.

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—"Rags" famous war dog and mascot of the first division was A. W. O. L. today.

The aged canine, who performed heroically in Flanders, disappeared from Fort Hamilton, where he had been brought on Sunday from Washington to be one of the featured members of the first division's reunion, which opens at the local post tomorrow.

The dog was brought here in charge of Major Raymond W. Hardenberg. He is a particular pet of Major General C. P. Summerall, chief of staff.

SCOUTS DISTRIBUTE CANDY AT ALMIRA

Through the courtesy of New Castle Girl Scouts, the old ladies at Almira Home were presented with candy and popcorn balls, Wednesday evening.

The various troops sent twelve representatives to the home to distribute the gifts. Girl Scout songs were sung, accompanied on the banjo, by Miss Jean Hicks. The scouts were dressed in Halloween costumes.

John D. Rockefeller Issues Statement On Big Break In Market

Rich Retired Oil Magnate Says "Fundamental Conditions In Country Good"

Wholly Unexpected Procedure As Wall Street Hears From "Grand Old Man"

By JAMES L. KILGALLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—John D. Rockefeller, Sr., "The Grand Old Man of Oil," who retired from business to public life on December 4, 1911, took cognizance of the situation in Wall street by coming forth with a statement on market conditions—a wholly unexpected procedure.

Like other prominent Americans, Mr. Rockefeller pointed out that "the fundamental conditions in the country are sound."

The former "Oil King" sees nothing to warrant the destruction in values of stocks that had taken place recently.

Reaction Noted
It was the first time in years that Mr. Rockefeller had felt it necessary to inject his personality into a business crisis. Wall street reacted with enthusiasm to the statement.

Mr. Rockefeller issued his statement from his estate at Pocantico Hills, N. J., where he has been devoting his time to golf and motoring.

The statement follows:
"Believing that fundamental conditions of the country are sound and that there is nothing in the business situation to warrant the destruction of values that has taken place on the exchanges during the past week my son and I have for some days been purchasing sound common stocks.

"We are continuing and will continue our purchases in substantial amounts at levels which we believe represent sound investment values."

Hurry Plans For Boys' Conference

Four Hundred Lads Expected Here November 19 For Older Boys' Meet

Lodging for 150 boys who will attend the annual State Older Boys' conference at the local Y. M. C. A. on November 29 and 30 and December 1 has already been secured but homes for probably 150 more must be secured by that time it was announced by local "Y" officials today.

Estimates are that 400 or even more high school lads from every section of Pennsylvania will come to the city for the meetings. Arrangements for the conference sessions are now being completed.

Clifford Pollock president of the Senior Hi-Y is chairman of a committee that is caring for the business problem. Assisting him is Bill Sharp.

Two large banquets are being planned for the conference sessions. One for the reception of the visitors will occur on Friday evening, the opening night while another for the conference in general will be held on Saturday night. A speaker at one of these will be C. C. Robinson senior secretary of employed boys' work for the national Y. M. C. A. council. He will be here for the entire conference.

W. A. Thomas, boys' work secretary of the New Castle institution said this morning that state headquarters at Harrisburg are mapping arrangements that local officials need not co. Word concerning the speakers or other phases of the convention which they have agreed to care for will be sent here shortly.

Neighbors Open War On Saxophonist, 17

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Now that the operator of a discordant radio loud speaker has been definitely set down as a "disorderly" person in a letter by Chief Magistrate McAduo, a determined band of Brooklynites has started a crusade to conquer the four-teen-hour-a-day saxophonist.

Led by Mrs. William A. Perry of No 596 Seventh Street, residents of a whole Brooklyn block are out to silence the saxophone of Julian Littau, seventeen, who lives in an apartment on Eighth St., behind their houses.

"I have obtained twenty-five signatures to a petition to have this young man's playing stopped," said Mrs. Perry. "We brought him once before Magistrate Jeannette G. Brill in Fifth Avenue Court, who directed him to keep his windows down when he played but now the noise is starting all over again."

"I am in sympathy with the campaign The World has been conducting against unnecessary noise and would be glad to join any protective organization against noise makers."

Liggett Launches Project For State Preservation Of McConnell's Mill Property

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 31.—A movement to have McConnell's Mills, picturesque Lawrence-Butler County park, preserved as a state park was launched at a dinner of the Naturalists' Club at Carnegie Institute on Tuesday night by Thomas Liggett, who led the successful fight for the preservation of Cook's Forest.

Mr. Liggett disclosed that the scenic grandeur of Slippery Rock Creek at McConnell's Mills is in danger of destruction through commercial exploitation. A hydroelectric company, he said, plans to dam the creek and develop the water power for industrial purposes.

He has already obtained more than 2,000 signatures to a petition to the State Water and Power Resources Board, asking it to refuse to grant a permit.

Slippery Rock Creek flows at McConnell's Mills through a wooded gorge strewn with enormous boulders. In scenic beauty it is said to be unsurpassed in the Eastern part of the United States.

It is urged that the valley for a mile above and a mile below the old mill be acquired by the commonwealth and preserved as a pleasure resort.

Identify Body By Mark On Clothing

Victim Of Railroad Accident At Butler Out Hunting Work

BUTLER, Oct. 31.—The body of the man killed late Saturday afternoon by a B. & O. passenger train near Mars was removed today to Cumberland, Md. Identification of the body as that of William E. Root of Cumberland was made by a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Decker.

Information regarding the train victim came about in an unexpected way, after it developed that Root carried nothing to identify him. The man's clothing bore the name of A. Mazier of Sand Patch, Somerset county. Inquiry of Mazier resulted in a telegram that he had given a suit of clothes to a man a month ago.

The B. & O. agent at Sand Patch, noting that the telegrams had passed to and from Mazier, recalled that Decker, a trainman for the railroad, had told him that his brother-in-law had disappeared. The agent at once sent word to Decker at Cumberland and the visit to Mars was made.

Mrs. Decker said that her brother had been out of work for some time and that this seemed to worry him. He left the home last Wednesday evening, telling his sister he would be gone for a few minutes.

Roof Placed On Gilfillan Block

Work on the new Gilfillan building on North Jefferson street has progressed so rapidly that workmen have practically completed the task of laying the roof on the structure and the lathers and plasterers will be on the job within a few days.

With a great number of building tradesmen available a record in construction work was established on the building. Brick work on this structure was started around the middle of October and has now been completed. It should take but a short length of time to complete the interior of the building now that the roof is on.

Reduction Move By Bank Of England Is Good News To Bulls

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Reduction of the Bank of England rate was considered the most bullish news in many weeks in the financial section today.

Brokers, snatching a few extra hours of sleep afforded by the late opening of the Exchange, were called by their offices and received the news of the reduction gladly.

In the opinion of observers, reduction of the Federal Reserve discount rate when the board meets today is probable.

New York Seeking To Eliminate Noise

(International News Service) NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—A truck equipped with sensitive apparatus for recording the intensity of sound, will soon begin wending its way through New York's streets, gathering evidence for the newly-created noise abatement society's war on the city's unnecessary noises, it was announced today.

Another method by which the commission hopes to reduce New York's tumult of sound will be publication of a questionnaire asking citizens the chief sources of bothersome sounds and time of day at which they occur.

It is prerogative of great men only to have great defects.—La Rochefoucauld.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Loyal Workers Have Masquerade Party

Party Event In E. M. Jones
Home; Other News Notes
Of Seventh Ward

Members of the Loyal Workers Bible school class of the Madison avenue Christian church had a masquerade Halloween party Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Jones on Sunny Side. Fifteen were present. Special guests were Mrs. Sam Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Laughlin.

The evening was spent in an enjoyable manner. The Jones home was decorated in Halloween colors and novelties. Games and music were the diversions of the evening. Three prizes were awarded, two costume prizes and one for guessing the identities of the most persons. C. J. Rafferty received the prize for the best costume. The prize for the most comical costume went to C. H. Clarke. Mrs. Kenneth Walter received the prize for identifying the most persons.

At a seasonable hour delicious refreshments appropriate for the season were served. Associate hostesses with Mrs. Jones were Mrs. C. H. Clark and Mrs. Kenneth Walter.

PARTY TONIGHT
Mabel Wilson lodge, No. 567 to B. of R. T. and Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen lodge, No. 955, are having a masquerade party this evening in the Knights of Malta hall. The party is for lodge members and families. A good time is anticipated.

Luncheons Served In Model Dining Room

Luncheon For Teachers In School Dining Room Each Wednesday

Girls of 8A group of Mahoning school are having some experience in preparing and serving lunches. Beginning a week ago Wednesday the girls prepare luncheon for eight persons each Wednesday. The luncheon is for six teachers and two girls of the class, who are the hostesses.

For a sum stated the girls plan their menu and prepare it. The six teachers paying for the luncheon for eight. Two of the girls of the class act as hostesses and are served with the teachers. Two of the girls serve the luncheon. In this way the girls of the group will receive experience in acting as hostesses, preparing a luncheon and also serving it. Different teachers are invited to the luncheon each week and the girls will take turns in serving and acting as hostesses at the luncheon. Last year the girls prepared and served the luncheon but the idea of two girls acting as hostesses is new this year.

Several Industrial Companies Announce Extra Dividends

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Following the action of United States Steel Corporation and American Can Corporation in declaring special cash dividends to holders of common stock, announcement was made today of similar extra dividend declarations by directors of other industrial companies.
United Dairy Products Corporation declared a quarterly dividend of $1.25 a share on the common stock, increasing the dividend rate from 4 to 5 per cent.

Yale and Towne Manufacturing Company, one of the largest and most important American manufacturers of hardware, declared a special dividend of $1 a share payable to stock of record December 2.
Directors of Marmen Motor Car Company, at a special meeting of the directors at Indianapolis today, declared the regular dividend of one dollar a share, in advance of the regular dividend period. This action was taken, according to a statement by

Attorney Pays Fine For Woman

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 31.—A fine of $1 imposed upon Mrs. Josephine Ryan, former postmaster at Waterbury, Payette county, for embezzling $1.- 743 of postal funds in 1924, has been paid by her attorney, David S. Kelly.

who defended her at the trial in 1925.
The attorney was called into court to settle the case, but was unable to produce his client, telling the court that the last he had heard of her she was very ill.

It was recalled by attaches of the court that circumstances beyond her control had involved the woman and that she had been allowed time to make up the shortage which a bonding company paid the government.

The court action was taken to close the case record.

"Just a Step Ahead"

"I am so happy... that the last pimple is gone"

The way to the skin is through the blood. Strong, healthy blood nourishes the body and fights against infection and disease.

You may be happy, too!

EVERY evening thousands enjoy themselves at dinner parties, dances, theatres, games, clubs. Many thousands more are denied the joy of such merriment and happiness.

Maybe this denial is due to a skin trouble. First impressions cannot be good without a clear skin—first impressions are quickly made and are not soon forgotten. Old friends may excuse pimples and secretly sympathize, but new acquaintances may not be so charitable. Skin blemishes are not inviting. Neither can they be covered up. They embarrass. Hold people back. Steal away joy and happiness.

BASEBALL LIVES.

Baseball still lives and occupies as high a place in the average American heart as it ever did. A few years ago the national game was struck a sad blow by scandal. A few men without conscience or scruple threatened for a little while to break down our confidence in the cleanness of the game and its players and to undermine American delight in the pastime. The world series recently played and all the season which preceded it have completed the restoration of baseball to its old comfortable corner in the affections of the people.

SHE IS WELCOME.

Katia Kourteva, Bulgarian newspaper woman, correspondent for three papers in that country comes to America to talk with us, learn about us and write home about us. Miss Kourteva is going to spend more than a year in America. That's the right plan for newspaper writers and others who want to give Europeans a true picture of us. Sane, careful, truthful writing on the part of a trained observer who is not in a hurry does much to preserve international friendships. Miss Kourteva is welcome.

THE PRICE.

A former high official in a great state goes to prison for trying to bribe a prohibition officer. The case is small, cheap insignificant. Yet it spells ruin for a man who gave 20 years of his life to successful public service. The price for jumping the fence in this ordered universe in which we live is sometimes very high.

MILLBURN

The funeral of the late George Simpson was held from the family home on Wednesday afternoon, and interment was made in Carpenter cemetery. Mr. Simpson had lived all his life in this community. Many friends and relatives from a distance attended the funeral.

The entire community mourns the loss of a kind friend and good neighbor in the sudden death of Philip Rodawalt, which occurred Thursday morning. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in the Blacktown Lutheran church.

Mrs. Oliver Henshaw and daughter Mabel of Cleveland attended the funeral of Philip Rodawalt on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. James Richards of New Castle were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Comstock over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mayne and children have moved from the J. L. Cole farm to the McWhorter farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Koch and children Dolores and Russell, Jr., of the New Castle-Elwood road were guests of Mrs. Koch's mother, Mrs. Eva Corryea, on Sunday.

The masquerade dance given by the Young People's club last Friday evening was the scene of much merriment. Funny costumes and faces won many a laugh. Lunch was served at a late hour. The music for the occasion was greatly enjoyed.

The celebration of farm and home day at Mt. Union school was quite well attended. Dinner was served at noon to about 35 guests and the pupils rendered a good program in the afternoon under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Harry Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Corryea had as their guests on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Amalong and daughters, Viola Corryea and Ralph Campbell of Ellwood City and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Corryea and daughter Mary Ellen.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weyman called on friends in New Wilmington recently.

C. B. Cox made a business trip to Pittsburgh on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dille of Sheakleyville, S. A. Allen of Volant, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dicks and Leroy Wible of New Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Mattocks and son Sherman, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dicks of Sharon were Sunday callers at the Comstock home.

WE ALL NEED—

Pep to keep us going and purpose to keep us going somewhere. Laughter to make life easy and labor to make it worthy. Horst power to get us there and brake power to stop when necessary. Houses to shelter our bodies and faith to shelter our souls. Victories to stir our pride and defeats to keep it under control. Enough play to keep us fit for work and enough work to make us enjoy play. Some one who loves us well enough to tell us the truth.

THE MOON-MOTH EXPRESS

Two invitations went to Peter's head. Still, for all that, he didn't lose it. After a second's thought, he said:

"If you do not mind, dear Sir Buttery, I will fly with Moon-Moth here. Never again may I have an opportunity to fly by night, and it is too good a chance to be lost. I am sure it will be no end of fun and excitement. Besides, old chap, you have done so much for me that I know you must be tired out and need a good night's rest. For the life of me I don't see how two of us could manage to sleep under one leaf. I'm afraid I'd roll to the ground if I tried it, or else push you off. Yet if the time has come for us to part, we part friends, don't we?"

"Of course," declared Sir Buttery. "I have had just as good a time as you have had, and I must say you are one of the jolliest companions for a fellow. Go ahead with our night-flyer friends and when you want to, come and see me again. You know where to find me—in the Garden of Delight. Or if you should miss me there, Buttery will know where I am!"

"All aboard for Moon-Moth express!" shouted the moths. "So long, boy," cried gay Sir Buttery. "Take care of yourself until we meet again!" Carefully, Peter climbed upon the back of the new steed which was waiting to carry him through the night—the steed which was to mount high in the air, and in no time at all leave Sir Buttery far behind once Peter had mounted.

Peter mounted, led the way, and he and his steed were followed by the rest of the night-flyers. As they sailed along, now high, now low, others joined the crowd and Peter noticed

Mothers, Mix This At Home for a Bad Cough

You'll be pleasantly surprised when you make up this simple home mixture and try it for a distressing cough or chest cold. It takes but a moment to mix and costs little, but it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any drugist. Pour this into a pint bottle; then fill it with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. The full pint thus made has no more than a small bottle of ready-made medicine, yet it is much more effective. It is pure, keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

This simple remedy has a remarkable three-fold action. It goes right to the seat of trouble, loosens the germs, soothes the inflamed membrane, and soothes away the inflammation. Part of the medicine is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly upon the bronchial tubes and thus helps inwardly to throw off the whole trouble with surprising ease.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form, and is known as one of the greatest healing agents for severe coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

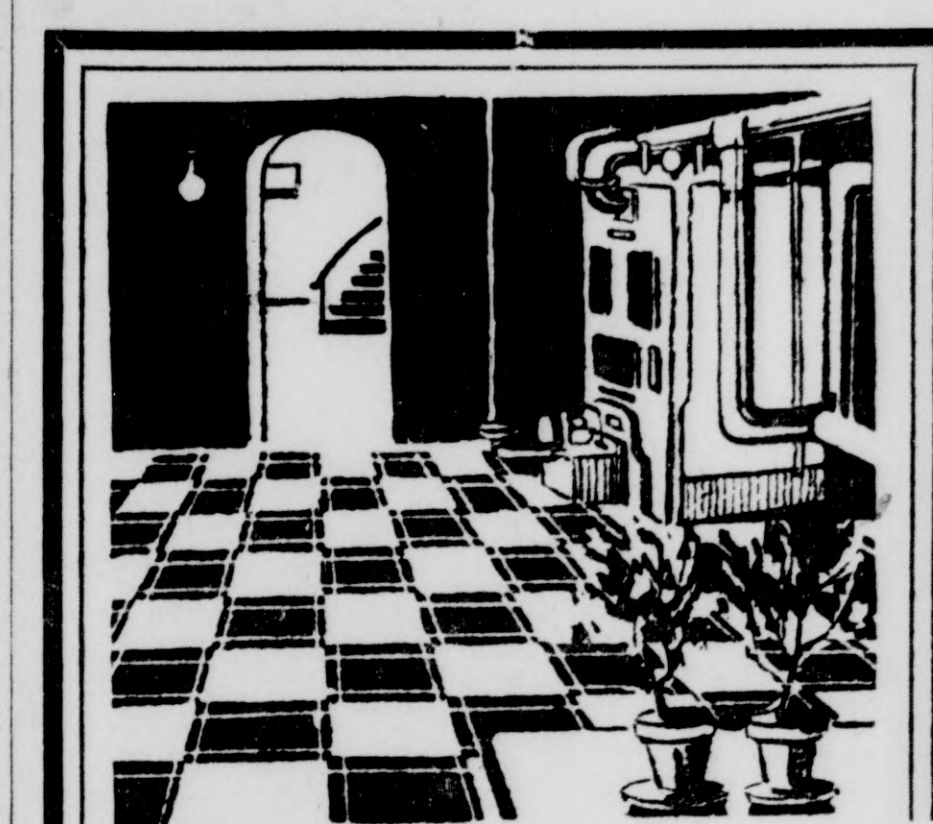

Gold Star Is Pasted On Johnny's Forehead

Does a gold star mean a good boy? That is the question.

Johnny is a particularly lively boy at the Margaret Henry Home. He is very young and this is his first term of school. It was doubted that he could settle down to the discipline of school life.

When he started to school he was told that he must be a very good boy. So when he came home each day he would remark: "Well, I've been a good boy this day." But it was hard for him in charge of the home to believe.

The other day however he came home from school with a gold star pasted on his forehead. Now we ask you isn't that conclusive evidence?

State Highway Department Is Ready For Winter

Task Of Putting Up Snow Fences Throughout County To Start Next Week

MANY ROADS ARE BEING COMPLETED

With the approach of winter, employees of the state highway department are being kept extremely busy in the local district getting ready for the winter season.

Show fences will be erected along the state roads in Lawrence county, starting next week, H. W. Lightner superintendent of the Lawrence county district stated this morning.

Mr. Lightner states that a great many roads which were started this summer are now nearing completion and will be in good shape for the winter.

Complete Pulaski Road.

The contractors who have been putting down the Pulaski road stretch between the Neshannock cemetery on the New Wilmington-Sharon road and Pulaski borough will complete the concrete work on this road this week providing the weather is favorable.

The stretch between the city line and Walmo on the Wilmington road will also be completed this week, Mr.
Lightner believes. The road has been open to traffic for some time but the contractor has not yet completed the task of putting in the macadam center strips. Only a few more days work remains on this stretch, Mr. Lightner stated today.

While the bridge on the New Castle-Ellwood road will undoubtedly be completed this fall the approaches and short stretch of concrete roadway near the park will hardly be finished and it is possible that the detour now in use will have to be used by motorists throughout the winter.

The Holmes Construction Co. which has the contract for the Volant road is hard at work in an attempt to complete the road before the winter sets in and with favorable weather should do so Mr. Lightner states.

Grading work on the Perry highway stretch in Lawrence and Butler counties is going forward and it is possible that the road can be put in shape to bear traffic during the winter after cold weather sets in.
Lawrence county has seen considerable road construction work this summer and there are a number of contracts let for work which will be completed early next year.

Announcement Of Contract Award Is Expected Soon

Bids For Construction Of New Telephone Relay Station
Here Are In

Announcement is expected within the next few days of the award of the contract for the construction of the new addition to the plant of the American Telephone and Telegraph company on the New Bedford road, within a few days, the date for receiving of bids having expired yesterday.

Supt. F. W. Moorehead in charge of the local station stated today, that no word had been received from the Philadelphia office of the company, which is handling the award of the contract, and that none is expected by them for a few days at least.

Several local contractors submitted bids for the plant, which will be a duplicate of the present structure, and is designed to handle increased toll cables between Cleveland and Pittsburgh, and Erie and Pittsburgh.

Many Enjoy P. H. C. Hallowe'en Event

Masquerade Party On Wednesday Evening; Cash Prizes Awarded

Fun and frolic reigned supreme throughout the city on Wednesday night, and despite the unpleasant weather Hallowe'en was ushered in with all the gaiety that the season proclaims. With many of the fraternal organizations opening their winter festivities with popular dances, none could have been a more delightful event than the masquerade held by New Castle Circle, No. 5, Protected Home Circle, and the committee who so successfully arranged the dance are to be congratulated upon the success of their opening party of the season. To describe the character in detail is beyond the ability of the writer, for there were many costumes featuring and wonderfully constructed, while others were of beautiful design—
a Spanish maid impersonated by Miss Erma Halboth was one of the characters that calls for special mention, while the two black crows, who were really Mr. and Mrs. John L. LaRue, attracted much attention by their Dixie style. Dancing was the keynote of the evening's diversion, and with an excellent orchestra, fun prevailed until a late hour, when Hallowe'en refreshments were served.

Following the grand march Judges
Frank Nolan, J. P. Drake and Miss Helen Dunlap had a difficult duty to perform in selecting the winners for the cash prizes offered by the Circle.
After much deliberation prizes were awarded to Mrs. John L. LaRue, Miss Erma Halboth, Miss Helen Hurst and Mrs. Mary Patterson.

Only business of importance was transacted at the regular session of the Circle, arrangements being now in progress for another eventful event to be held on November 27th, the 43rd anniversary of No. 5, with the initiation of a large class of candidates into the mysteries of the order.

amining purposes and it is important that all are present.

Girl Reserve Party.

Benjamin Franklin Girl Reserves enjoyed a Hallowe'en party Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Y. M.
C. A. in the gymnasium. The usual Hallowe'en games were enjoyed and later, doughnuts, popcorn balls, apples and cider were served by the committee in charge. Masks and Hallowe'en attire were worn.

Boy Scout News

Will Assist Tonight Boy Scouts are asked to meet at the American Legion home, North Jefferson street tonight at 7:30 o'clock to participate in the Hallowe'en parade. The boys will assist in the line of march and will carry torches beside the drummers.

ACTIVITIES DETAINED

Headquarters has been swamped for the past several weeks with Community Chest work and it has been necessary to relinquish all scout work until the chest duties are taken care of.
Fall scout activities will be resumed in the next week or so.

SCOUT LEADERS

Scoutmaster Earle K. Herbert will be host to other scout leaders of the county at the next regular scout leaders' meeting to be held at the Wampum Boy Scout headquarters, on Monday, November 18 at 7:30 p. m.
This will not be a business meeting, just fun and eats. Scoutmaster Herbert has an interesting story of his trip to England last summer.

INDOOR AIRPLANE MEET

Arrangements for an indoor airplane contest among Boy Scouts have been made for December 6 at the Carnegie auditorium. All scouts who enter this contest will be come eligible to enter the spring contest at Bradford field next year. Beautiful flying models of airplanes will be given as first and second prizes for the competition at the auditorium in December.

ROUND-UP NOVEMBER 22

November 22 is the date for the fall Boy Scout round-up and contest which will be held at the Carnegie auditorium. To make the contest a success, every troop must have entries in all of the events. Beautiful medals will be given to the winners for first and second places and ribbons for third place. Numerous events are planned for the round-up.

TO AID TEACHERS

Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools has requested scout headquarters to furnish several hundred Boy Scouts to assist with the state convention of teachers in December.
They will assist as ushers, pages, messengers, and guides for delegates. All scouts at the convention will be in uniform.

Hand Operated Traffic Lights May Solve Problem

According to information received by city council, speeding in front of Highland avenue school has been resumed and it is said that an effort may be made by which inexpensive traffic lights, to be operated by hand control, may be installed, not only at Highland avenue school, but at other schools, the suggestion having been offered by Councilman Tyler.

It was stated today by a colleague, Councilman Reeves, that the services of police officers are used at the schools, and if lights were placed and the school authorities assigned teachers or janitors to operate the lights during periods when school children had to use the thoroughfares as a "crossover" it would efficiently solve the problem and officers could be free for other duty.

AUTO DEALERS WILL NOT MEET FRIDAY

Because of conflicting attractions the regular meeting of the New Castle Auto Dealers association which was to have been held Friday at noon in the Elks club has been indefinitely postponed.

The next regular meeting of the association will be held on Friday, November 15.

PERMITS HIGHER

Building operations here during October took a spurt and the amount which it is estimated will be required to pay for the month's construction or to cover the operations proposed by the permits will be $59,255, exclusive of the estimate for the Epworth ifice will cost $130,000. During September building permits amounted only to $31,390.

Duties Here

PLAN PROGRAM ON NEXT SUNDAY

Sunday will be an important day in the history of the First Congregational church and the life of Rev. Rees T. Williams, the new pastor of the church.

On the afternoon of that day Rev. Williams will be ordained, while at the morning service of the church he will be given the customary charge and installed as pastor. At the evening service the charge to the people of the congregation will be given. In fact, the entire day will be devoted to the inauguration of the official pastorate of Rev. Williams, who has already made a very deep impression on the members of his congregation and the community in general.

At the morning service Sunday there will be a sermon in Welsh and the charge to the pastor by Rev. J. T. Williams of Cincinnati, O. Mrs. Fred Jones of Pittsburgh will be the soloist.

The ordination service, with Rev. J. T. Williams of Cincinnati, O., and Dr. Glanville Morgan of Cleveland, O., as masters of ceremonies, will be held at 2:30 o'clock in the church. Local ministers invited to participate in the ceremony include Rev. Jesse Porter, Rev. F. M. Childs, Rev. W. C. Tyrrell, Rev. Clifford M. Joshua and Rev. Thomas Francis. They will assist in the services.

At this service the following persons will represent the various activities of the congregation: David Evans and Mrs. Thomas Grey, the deacons and deaconesses; W. P. Williams and Miss Ethel Thomas, the Sabbath school and primary department; D. O. Davies, the Young Men's Bible class; Griffith Thomas, the Christian Endeavor Society; James Davies, the trustees; Emrys Davies, the choir; Harry Jones, general chairman. There will be solos at this service by Griffith Jones and David Lewis. Featuring the afternoon program will be the rendition of "The Crusaders" by Dr. Protheroe by the male chorus of 60 voices and directed by Emrys Davies.

In the evening service Dr. Glanville Morgan of Cleveland will be the preacher, delivering a sermon in English and the charge to the people of the church. There will be solos at this service by Miss Cecelia Hughes and Evan Hopkins.

Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory former tennis star is chairman of a new enterprise which will handle the handwork of the women of Norway in the United States.

Make yourself honey and the flies will devour you.—Cervantes.

MORAVIA STOP

Rev. S. L. Cobb the new pastor of the Moravian church expects to arrive with his family Friday and will preach Sunday morning on "Forgetting Disciples." Communion will be observed at this service. On Sunday evening Rev. Cobb will preach on "The Task of the Church."

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Reno and family of Minneapolis have returned to their home after spending some time in this vicinity. Mr. Reno and family came east to attend the funeral of his mother Mrs. Samuel Reno.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhinehart have returned home after quite an extended auto trip during which they visited Cleveland, Lorain, Detroit and various other points west.

Mrs. Alice Woods of Erie spent several days last week with the family of her son Lester Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kaldy had as their guests Sunday Mrs. Kaldy's father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Roth of Braddock.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown were called to East New Castle the first of the week by the serious illness of their niece Margaret Bowden.

Mrs. Lester Wood spent Monday in Ellwood City the guest of her daughter Mrs. Clarence Ashton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reno of Erie are visiting Mrs. Susan VanGorder.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hill of Niles, O., visited Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Houk and Mr. and Mrs. Ray St. John over the week end.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Z. Conner of Canton, O., visited Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Houk Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Parker of Ellwood City, Mrs. Alice Wood of Erie and Mrs. Lester Wood of Moravia visited friends in Grove City Thursday.

Countess Found Dead

Mrs. Eve Waddington Greenley, of Chicago, who is believed to have been an English countess, was found dead in her home on the fashionable North Shore with a bullet in her head. Police are unable to determine whether she was a suicide or was murdered.

Gives Radio Credit For Taste In Music

PARIS, Oct. 31. — The radio is responsible for the growing good taste in music among Americans, said Herr Arthur Bodansky, well-known conductor of the Metropolitan Opera, as he boarded the boat-train in the Gare St. Lazare.

And this does not mean only among the people of the larger cities, which would not be so surprising, but in many small towns as well. People who live in the country now drive fifty miles or more to hear a good concert and they want the very best music they can find, not only jazz.

Boston Police To Question Man In Recent Slaying

Man Picked Up In New York City Will Be Questioned By Boston Officials

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—A new move in the investigation of the slaying here last September of Samuel Reinstein, New York furrier and alleged "white slave racketeer," was made by police today when they notified federal authorities in New York they would like to question Albert Lucks, 34, arrested there in connection with a white slave probe.

Lucks, who denied the charge, is not suspected of the Reinstein killing, it was stated at police headquarters here, but it was hoped he might be able to throw some light on Reinstein's activities and thereby aid the local authorities in finding the actual slayer.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing

CREOMULSION FOR THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

NOT A DOLLAR FOR REPAIRS NOT A DOLLAR FOR SERVICE

No wonder the owner of a General Electric feels a glow of pride when he says, quietly, "Yes, we have a General Electric." For, what electric refrigerator can match his in efficiency, in quietness, in stamina, in trouble-free service?

The record of more than 350,000 in use with no owner having spent a dollar for repairs or service is one which truly challenges comparison.

The mechanism of the General Electric is so simple... it never needs oiling... it is hermetically sealed. It has an accessible freezing regulator. It makes plenty of ice cubes.

The cabinets are all-steel. They cannot warp. They are particularly easy to clean.

And, of course, it automatically maintains a temperature several degrees below 50—the figure which medical authorities agree is the danger point in food preservation. Come in today and ask about our conveniently spaced payment plan.

Punishment For Senator Bingham Is Quite Likely

Democratic-Insurgent Coalition Demand Official Censure Be Invoked

SENATOR NORRIS TO HAVE SAY SO

Statements By Joseph R. Grundy On 1920 Presidential Nomination Stir Capital

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The congressional lobby inquiry shared the senate's interest today with the prospect of the Democratic-Insurgent coalition demanding official censure for Senator Hiram Bingham (R) of Conn., because he employed a paid lobbyist during the writing of the tariff bill.

The move to punish Bingham, because he employed Charles L. Eyan, son, Connecticut Manufacturers agent, rested in the hands of Senator George W. Norris (R) of Neb., insurgent leader. Norris may sponsor a resolution of censure during the day although he indicated he would wait the return of the dozen senators attending the Burton funeral. The Nebraska however may defend his selection of the lobby committee, which Bingham charged was "framed" against him.

Will Be Considered
The question of censuring Bingham will command immediate consideration whenever Norris lays it before the senate. It will be of the highest privilege, since it deals directly with the ethics and official conduct of a senator.

Talk reverberated through the senate chamber meanwhile over the statements of Joseph R. Grundy, Pennsylvania political leader and "Grand-daddy" of all lobbyists, on the nomination of Warren G. Harding at Chicago in 1920. His declaration that the late Senator Henry Cabot Lodge initiated the final maneuver that made Harding a compromise nominee released a wave of discussion.

Penrose Was Leader
Some of the senate's oldest Republican leaders, who were very active at the 1920 convention, declared the late Bois Penrose (R) of Penn., really ruled the convention. They contended Penrose had determined on Harding long before the convention—had even introduced him around the Capitol as "our next President" months before the convention and that his representatives in Chicago merely carried out his wishes.

These Republican veterans said Grundy and the late John T. King, then Republican national committeeman from Conn., were merely Penrose's personal lieutenants and that every man in the final conference "looked to Penrose for political guidance on national affairs." Grundy listed these conferees as Senator Watson, the late Senators Brandegee and McCormick, former Senators Wadsworth and Calder, Senator Smoot, Senator Lodge, George Harvey and himself.

Democratic chieftains however ignored this story but rejoiced over Grundy's testimony about "backward states" in the west and his intimation that high protectionists should be empowered to write all tariff bills. He condoned the employment of Eyan by Bingham and said Eyan's success in getting high rates for Connecticut products was of great value to industry.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Oct. 31.—A trust fund of $90,000 established here in 1909 has grown to $153,000 in 1929. Five of ten beneficiaries under the fund have died since the foundation of the trust. When the rest have passed, the North Congregational church here gets the money outright.

Mme. Sturkow Ryder To Play Here Twice

Music Lovers Of City Will Be Given Two Opportunities Of Hearing Her

Music lovers of this district and the students of the Senior High school are most fortunate due to the fact that through a change in arrangements, Mme. Sturkow Ryder, internationally known pianist, scheduled to appear at the noon hour Friday, November 1, at the Y. W. C. A. auditorium, sponsored by the Haney Furniture company, has been permitted to remain over here for two recitals, on that date. This will enable a greater number of people to benefit from her appearance here.

At 2 p. m. Friday, Madame Sturkow Ryder will present one of her delightful programs at the Senior High school auditorium for the benefit of the High school students. The same evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. auditorium, she will appear in her second recital of the day. This is open to the public.

There is no admittance charge made and all people interested in good music will be welcome.

Gospel Singers Give Program

Take Part In Revival Service At Hoover Heights Tabernacle

A lively song service opened the revival meeting last night in the Hoover Heights Tabernacle after which the Gospel messengers led by Mr. Case gave a half hour musical program, both instrumental and vocal. Rev. Milton Scripture brought a searching message on "Why Man Must Be Born Again" declaring that as we think of the condition of man it is no marvel that a great change is necessary, which God calls a new birth. Our failures, our resolutions, all speak to us of the need of this new birth and we need an adjustment of the inner works and springs of the heart. He appealed to the audience to make this change at once before it is too late.

A musical program will again be rendered this evening and the topic for discussion will be "What the New Birth Is?" Services start each evening at 7:30 p. m.

"Wet" Members Of Sharon Country Club Are Given Warning

SHARON, Pa., Oct. 31.—Unless future raids show that the liquor laws are being violated, no arrests will be made as the result of the raid on the Sharon Country club by federal, state and county officials last Saturday night. So District Attorney Leo H. McKay said Wednesday.

However, if subsequent raids on the club do show that members are violating the law, the two pints of liquor found in a gallon jug in the club storeroom Saturday night will be used as evidence for charges, he declared.

Crippled Buck Is Lassoed And Killed

RIDGWAY, Pa., Oct. 31.—An eight-point buck deer with only one leg was found in the woods near Halliton Wednesday by Harry Engstrom of Montmorel, hunter for McDade Oil company, while hunting for woodcock. The deer was in the brush and made a feeble attempt to escape. Engstrom secured a rope and lassoed the deer. An examination showed that the buck had probably been hit by a train or car several months ago. How it managed to exist for so long is a puzzle. The animal was killed and the carcass turned over to Game Warden E. W. Turley of Ridgway.

Dr. Straton Will Be Buried Friday

Confer With State On Road Problems

Mercer County Commissioners Will Go To Harrisburg For Conference Next Week

MERCER, Pa., Oct. 31.—Mercer County Commissioners will leave for Harrisburg next week where they will be in conference with the officials of the state highway department concerning the road problem which the county men face.

Under the provision of the Flynn Act of Pennsylvania Legislature (1929) the county was to receive the sum of $351,658.90 for complete road building. They had planned the construction of the remaining six and one-half miles necessary to connect Grove City and Sandy Lake by way of Millbrook and open a new route from Pittsburgh to Erie as well as building a road from Maysville to the Ohio line connecting Greenville with a new route westward.

The department now advise that the county will get $62,000 less than this amount. To the above stated amount there was $95,000 state aid money that would with the larger sum have built the two roads the solons thought.

The contract for the Grove City route was to have been let this week.

Then officials have stayed that action until the matter can be thrashed out in conference at Harrisburg. The state owes the county $65,000 as their share of the road into Sheakeleysville. This route was built 50-50 county and state but now has been taken over as a part of the Perry Highway making the county share redeemable in state funds.

This refund will be asked for and if paid the problem is solved. If the state cannot pay some other medium must be exercised.

JURY DISCHARGED
After 24 hours of deliberation the jury in the case of John Dorothich of Farrell charged with driving while drunk was discharged this morning by Judge James Chambers. They are understood to have stood 9 to 3 for conviction.

Jury verdicts of today at the October session are: George Lord of Greenville charged with adultery, guilty; M. A. McGuire of Oil City, larceny, guilty; Mike Janco of Farrell on liquor charge not guilty and county pay costs; Joseph Lukath not guilty but pay costs. Pleas of the day are: King Adams of Farrell, negro, liquor; A. K. Davis of Sharon, liquor.

MUCH LAND SOLD
Sheriffs Deeds for 31 tracts of county property are being written and will be issued at once by the office of that official.

The land was sold at the recent Sheriff's Sale of October 21. The list totaled 42 cases for the term, the remainder being settled before time of sale.

CALF CLUB MEETS
There will be a meeting of the Grove City Calf Club held this evening at Grove City announces. Farm Agent W. S. Hagar. The club is one of a dozen organized in this county. They have as their purpose the stimulating of interest in cattle raising among the boys and girls on farms.

The county Baby Beef club was the outgrowth of these organizations. For the first year in six this club will not hold their annual Christmas sale of cattle.

SMALLPOX WANES
The smallpox situation in the county today is on the mend is the belief of Dr. S. J. Dickey the County Medical Director whose prompt and efficient methods stayed an epidemic in the belief.

Contacts with the first case quarantined at that time, have been under state surveillance for the required length of time. This statement pertains to the first contacts; others will be released as their time expires. While the situation is looking better the doctor still urges care and watchfulness on the part of all. The state officials are in charge and in many touch with the cases. None will be released until all possible danger is outlawed.

Small Game Season To Open On Friday

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Oct. 31.—Hunters for small game and hunters who prefer so called "large game" tomorrow will have the first real opportunity of 1929 for their favorite diversions.

Rabbits, squirrels, turkeys, quail and male ringneck pheasants tomorrow become legal quarry. The season for bear also opens tomorrow, to continue until the last day of deer season, December 15. The deer season, as always, will not begin until December 1.

The close of the season varies for various types of small game but for the next two weeks at least but few sections of the state will not resort to the daily booming of the trusty 12 and 16 gauge shotgun.

It is estimated that at least 80 per cent of the 500,000 hunters who take the field tomorrow will be in quest of the lowly "cottontail." Rabbits are the primary object for the season.

The farmer boy totting a shotgun for the first time and the "big game hunter" unable to wait for December 1, both like to take at least one day for rabbits.

The rabbit season will remain open until November 30. The daily bag limit is five and that for the season is 15. For hares, the same season will prevail but the limits are three and 15.

The season for squirrels of the various kind also will end November 30 with a daily bag limit of six and 20 for the season. The same season will govern the killing of quail or partridges with a daily limit of eight and 25 for the season.

Only 15 calendar days will be allowed for the shooting of male ringneck pheasants. Two is the daily limit and six that for the season.

The entire state will be closed to the shooting of grouse, said by members of the game commission to be decreasing because of the inroads of disease and winged killers from the more northerly latitudes. Hungarian partridges, stocked each year for five years by the commission, also will be protected in the entire state.

Members of the game commission, always optimistic about the quantity available to the hunters, forecast this year a record kill of wild turkeys. The commission has made special efforts to stock wild turkeys in sections where they can thrive and reports from the field officers indicate their presence in more than half the counties of the state. In Westmoreland, Fayette and Somerset counties the season will remain closed.

The open season for turkeys also will be until November 15. One to a hunter is the day and season limit. They may be killed only between sunrise and sunset.

Although the bear season opens tomorrow except in a few counties the hunt for them does not begin until deer season. Based on claims for damages to bees and livestock the commission reports a large number of bear in all the northern tier counties. Scarcity of food has driven the bear from the inaccessible haunts where they usually are found and reports from many sections of the state show they are venturing closer to human habitation than is customary.

Officers of the commission have issued special warnings reminding trappers that the opening of the muskrat season has been advanced one month. Muskrats may be trapped between December 1 and February 28.

The trapping season for mink, opossum, skunk and otter will open tomorrow and close February 28. Raccoon season begins tomorrow and closes January 15.

The season for all wild water fowl which opened October 1 will continue, under Federal regulations, until January 15.

STAR OF WALES LODGE TO MEET

Session To Take Place On Saturday Night; Welsh News

By WILLIAM A. JOHNS (Brython)

The Star of Wales lodge No. 90 True Iovites of America will hold their regular meeting Saturday evening, November 2, at the Emanuel Baptist church beginning at 7:30. The meeting will be in charge of the president, Griffith Phillips of Lyndal street, and the vice president, Evan Hopkins of Sheldahl avenue.

Reports will be made by the financial secretary, Thomas D. Thomas, John Harvard, chairman of the sick committee, will report as to the condition of sick members. The two veteran singers, Thomas Hopkins and William C. Lewis, will sing this meeting. They have been concert singers for the past 50 years and have been heard in parts of England, Wales and America and have frequently entertained New Castle audiences.

A letter was received from South Wales telling the people of this community that working conditions in Wales are not as good as could be hoped for but they are hoping that Premier MacDonald and his workers will do some good for the unemployed.

A letter has been received from the Welsh veteran, Thomas Edwards of Pico, Calif., saying that he and his family are all well and have received a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Richard Richards, formerly of Long avenue, this city, and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wick, and had enjoyed the time spent with them.

David J. Owens, who is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Evans, South Mill street, while his wife and daughter are on a trip to Wales, received a letter from them stating that they are enjoying the trip but thinking are very slow and business bad in Wales.

Next year will see a great number of Welsh people going back to Wales to attend the National Eisteddfod which is being held at Hanelby. John Evans and family of Mill street are among those who are going. This is a big affair as there will be choirs from all over the world in competition, several choirs from the United States, Canada and Australia having planned on attending. At present buildings are being erected to take care of the crowds.

The Emmanuel Baptist church people are enjoying a warm church and Sunday school room through the kindness and generosity of members and friends of the church. The furnace of the church has been put in order.

The NEW 50¢

Colgate Toothbrush

(Designed by Colgate Department of Dental Education)

GIVEN AWAY

to each purchaser of

Two 25¢ Tubes of Colgate Ribbon Dental Cream

$1.00 value for 50¢

THE OFFER: To induce still more people to try Ribbon Dental Cream . . . we make this remarkable offer. Only Colgate . . . world's largest makers of tooth paste . . . could finance such a proposition.

There is no "catch" to this offer. Colgate simply wants you to try Ribbon Dental Cream. To repay you for doing this, we offer you a genuine new Colgate Toothbrush . . . value 50 cents . . . ABSOLUTELY FREE.

The brush

This toothbrush—the newest, most advanced type known to dental science—was designed by the Colgate Department of Dental Education . . . a group of dentists who have studied the needs of thousands of men, women and children.

Examine this brush. Study its shape, its size, its bristles. It is made by skilled American workers . . . under the most sanitary conditions . . . from selected, imported snow-white bristles of finest quality. Every brush carefully inspected. Handles are of lovely transparent material, in 5 exquisite shades of green, purple, amber. Bristles are held in a firm, visio-like grip.

This brush is identical in quality, in size, in durability to nationally advertised brushes that sell regularly in the better stores at 50¢. Now yours, free—this way.

The dentifrice

Colgate's Ribbon Dental Cream is the world's largest-selling tooth paste. The reason for this is simply that Colgate's cleans teeth better.

Colgate's contains the world's best cleansing agent—a penetrating foam that cleanses where the tooth-brush cannot reach.

Your dentist will tell you that decay doesn't start on the smooth outer surfaces of the teeth . . . but in the tiny crevices where food particles and much collect.

Hence the real test of a tooth paste is its ability to get down into these crevices and cleanse them thoroughly. A recent scientific test proved that Colgate's has a greater penetrating power than any of the leading tooth pastes on the market.

The foam of Colgate's carries a fine chalk powder which polishes the enamel safely, brilliantly.

The Colgate method of scientific tooth brushing

After years of study and thousands of experiments, the Colgate Method of scientifically cleansing the teeth has been developed by the Colgate Department of Dental Education.

This Method is most effective when Ribbon Dental Cream is brushed on with the Colgate Brush.

SAVES 50 CENTS

The Colgate brush has an amazing penetrating, cleansing power. Because the bristles are scientifically serrated . . . tucked . . . to get into the tiny fissures, crevices and hard-to-reach places where ordinary tooth-brushes fail to penetrate.

Brush teeth with this up-and-down motion, advise dentists. The new Colgate Toothbrush was specially designed to make this action doubly effective. Don't brush directly across the teeth.

When you brush your teeth on this inside, use an in-and-out stroke. Note how the firm bristles invigorate the gums.

For the springy, serrated bristles, set at exactly the right distance, act in a way that applies the full, concentrated cleansing power of the famous Colgate foam . . . deep down into the "hard-to-clean" places.

Start today to use the Colgate Method of Scientific Tooth Brushing . . . and note the difference in your teeth ten days hence.

NOTE: This offer is strictly limited. The supply of brushes has been rigidly allotted to stores co-operating in this great offer. They won't last long once people read this announcement. So, act NOW!

Keep Friends Out Of Job Hunting

Advice Is Offered To Students By Economist In Philadelphia

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31.—"Don't mix your friends with your job-hunting!"

This is the sage advice offered by Harry E. Bartow, economist of the Pierce school here, in an address to the students at the reopening of the school.

"Friends are never more useless than when you are looking for a job," said Bartow. "A man does not employ you because you are his friend or a likeable chap but because you can do something upon which he can make a profit."

"Some business men are so kind-hearted that they can't refuse employment without passing you on with a letter to some business friend. Then when you fail to get the job to which your friend has referred you the bonds of friendship are seriously strained."

"Keep all the good friends you can get, but keep them out of your job-hunting. You get friends by using your heart, but you get a job by using your head. You sell your services just as you sell any other commodity.

"So, Mr. Job-hunter," concluded Bartow, "you will save a soul-full of patience and sole-thickness of leather if you will quietly lay away your introductory letters and cards wherever you keep your souvenirs of friendship, and then decide just what marketable serving you have to offer and select the plants that are purchasing that kind of service."

Great Britain and Ireland may lead the world in shipbuilding, but they must go a long way to beat the United States at the business of selling ships.—The Haverhill Evening Gazette.

Senator Watson Makes Appeal To Pass Tariff Bill

Indiana Senator Makes Dramatic Plea To Senate To Pass Tariff Bill

LEADERS PROMISE SPEEDY ACTION

By WM. S. NEAL
International News Service Staff
WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Shaking with emotion and obviously suffering from illness which caused his doctor to order him to Florida, Senator James E. Watson, of Ind., Republican leader today made a dramatic appeal to the senate to save the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill from disaster.

Announcing to the senate that President Hoover wants a tariff bill passed, Watson proposed that bold efforts be made to compromise the differences of the Democratic-Progressive Republican coalition and the old guard Republicans.

The plea brought prompt response with Senator Borah (R) of Idaho, a leader of the Progressive Republican group, Senator Simmons (D) of North Carolina, Democratic tariff leader and Senator Harrison (D) of Mississippi, urging speedy action to get the bill to the president.

During the exchange the senate paid an unusual tribute to Watson as majority leader by loudly applauding.

Have Color In Cheeks

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should try Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 20 years of study. Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound. Know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and help overcome constipation. Take nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes sold yearly. 15c, 30c, 60c.

Senator Johnson's expressed hope that Watson will quickly regain his health.

Dr. William L. Steen, city health officer was instrumental in calling the meeting which was an enthusiastic success.

During the meeting Dr. B. F. Johnson, of Pittsburgh Dairy Laboratory, and Dr. Frank Schote, state health department, Harrisburg, addressed the men interested in milk. Dr. W. L. Steen also addressed the meeting and the manner of operation of the new act was explained.

It is said the new act will ensure a more sanitary and higher grade of milk for the consumer and all present agreed to give their cooperation.

Robbery Occurs At Rose Avenue School

Money Taken From School Thrift Savings Bank Last Night

Rose avenue school was entered during the night, several doors forced and the money in the thrift savings bank of the school, with the exception of the pennies taken. The actual amount taken is not yet known.

Detective John Young and Officer Longstreth were detailed to investigate the robbery when reported this morning and found that entrance into the building had first been effected through the coal chute.

A couple of doors were then forced to get into the upper part of the school. A door was taken off the stockroom by removing the bolts and a window finally broken to get at the Thrift Savings bank.

The bank was broken and all the money, quarters, dimes and nickels taken but the pennies left.

Senator Bingham Will Apologize

Connecticut Senator Ready To Admit His Error In Hiring Of Eyanson

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Punitive action against Senator Hiram Bingham (R) of Connecticut for his putting a paid lobbyist on the senate payroll to assist him in preparing new tariff rates, was held up in the senate this afternoon while his friends sought a compromise settlement based upon a public apology by the Connecticut senator.

A drastic resolution of censure was drawn by Senator Norris (R) of Nebraska, flaying Bingham's action and condemning it in unmeasured terms. Before Norris could introduce it, Bingham's friends launched their counter move.

The offer was said to be based on a pledge that Bingham would apologize for his employment of Charles L. Eyanson, Connecticut manufacturer's agent, and also apologize for his charges that the senate lobby investigating committee was "framed" against him. Norris indicated that if Bingham made this public apology, admitting his error in employing Eyanson, the resolution of censure would be abandoned.

The Norris resolution was couched in stinging terms. The Nebraskan gave it to newspaper men in confidence and later showed it to a number of senators on the floor. Before he could gain recognition, however, he was approached by Senator Reed of Pennsylvania with the compromise. They conversed earnestly on the floor for ten minutes and then Norris left the chamber.

An apology by Bingham for his employment of Eyanson would be virtually unprecedented in senate history. It would terminate senate action against him undoubtedly, although it would by no means end senatorial debate about it.

Market Shows Lots Of Activity

Big Buying Demand As Stock Market Opens At Noon

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor
NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Like a thoroughly aroused giant, the bull market in industrial stocks threw off its fetters at the first tap of the opening gong at noon today.

Prices of the active stocks which have been under fire for a week or more leaped from five to 12 points, adding measurably to the rallies acquired near the close of Wednesday's market. Knowledge of the fact that today's three-hour session will be the last opportunity of the week to buy stock in any of the American listed exchanges sent thousands of optimistic investors into the markets to buy their favorite shares. A stampede of the bears to cover up their tracks caused heavy buying and sales during the first half hour ran up to the total of 2,450,000 shares.

Comparisons with Tuesday's low prices show recoveries of from 10 to 75 points. DuPont, for example, which sold at 70, recovered to 140; Westinghouse was up about 55 points at 155; International Tel and Tel. up 34 points at 95; American Tel and Tel up 46 points at 250; U. S. Steel up 25 points; New York Central up 28; Montgomery Ward up 29; General Motors up 19; Standard Oil of New Jersey up 21; American Steel Foundries up 16; New Haven Railroad up 31.

Lake Ship Sinks After Collision

S. S. Senator Sinks In Lake, Steamer Marquette In Distress; 35 Drowned

(International News Service) CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The S. S. Senator sank twenty miles east of Port Washington, Wis., at 7:30 a. m. today following collision in a dense fog with the S. S. Marquette, according to reports flashed here by radio. The Marquette, the message stated, is unable to keep afloat more than an hour longer. The report was timed at noon.

Two members of the Senator's crew were rescued, but the others are believed to have gone down with their ship. The Sheboygan and Milwaukee Coast Guards, and fishing snags from Port Washington, are rushing to the scene, the report stated. Early Carlyle, an amateur wireless operator, living in Chicago, caught the message which was later verified by the radio corporation of America station here.

Captain Kinch of the Marquette, it was said, did not send out his S. O. S. call until several hours after the collision, when it was apparent that he could not save his ship.

According to the Marquette's radio calls for help, only two men of the Senator's crew of thirty-five escaped. They managed to pull away from the sinking vessel in a lifeboat.

The Marquette, according to latest dispatches, is rapidly breaking up under the lash of the waves, and will soon join the Senator on the floor of the lake.

Offers Resolution To Have Congress Probe Speculation

Senator Nye, North Dakota, Would Use Congressional Probe On Stock Market

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—A congressional investigation of stock exchange speculation throughout the country was proposed in a resolution presented in the Senate today by Senator Nye (R) of North Dakota.

He proposed appointment of a committee of five with broad authority to summon witnesses and secure record of exchanges.

Nye declared that the investigation was a forerunner to necessary congressional legislation to regulate purely speculative operations on stock exchanges.

Insull Pledges Employees Help

Public Utilities Magnate Of Chicago Will Aid Employees Caught In "Market"

(International News Service) CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Samuel Insull, public utilities magnate, announced here today he was ready to aid his employees who had purchased basically sound securities but who were faced with being "wiped out" in the current bear market.

The aid, however, will only be extended in investigated cases and will not protect employees who have been speculating recklessly, it was stated. Insull's action followed closely that of Julius Rosenwald, who yesterday expressed a firm belief in the prosperity of the United States and said his personal fortune would back his 40,000 employees who had purchased stock depleted in value by the present market conditions.

Gillespie Prepares To Start Pursuit Of Bunnies Friday

Hunting season for small game begins Friday and already most of the nimrods of New Castle have laid plans to hurry into the fields and woods tomorrow. Ringnecks, squirrels, rabbits, quail and woodcock will be the general prey.

One of the first to get away will be Chauncey Davis, who will go to Crawford county to hunt ringnecks. In journeying through Lawrence county fields he reports that the rabbits are lively which augurs for good condition.

Mayor Gillespie and "Bill" Moody will hunt in the vicinity of Plain Grove. Many other persons are also getting ready to go into the woods and as usual all should adopt extraordinary precautions to avoid accidents and to not start fires.

Judges To Review Parade, And Award Costume Prizes On Lawn Of Central School Building

Bugle And Drum Corps In New Uniforms To Lead Line Of March On Thursday Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—All is in readiness for the annual Halloween celebration tonight of the community.

The committee in charge headed by Harold Burns has this signs prepared for grouping of the various costumes competing for prizes.

Each year there are some outstanding achievements in the way of make-up that receive recognition from the judges. In former years the prizes were not awarded until a day or two later but this year according to the committee the prize awards will be made after the parade on the lawn of the Central school.

The parade will form at the upper end of Lawrence avenue and will traverse the principal streets of the business section winding up at the Central school for the grand awards.
There will be special police patrols out to control the large crowd that is sure to gather to watch the varied and outlandish costumes which make their annual appearance at this time led by the Legion bugle and drum corps in their new uniforms.

If the weather man will only be kind and send a mild evening without rain but that is really too much to expect for this time of the year as former Halloween nights have been raw and cold.

Mission Study Class At Patterson Home

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—Fourteen members of the Mission Study class met at the home of Mrs. H. D.
Patterson Wednesday afternoon and enjoyed an open discussion of the mission book "From Jerusalem to Jerusalem."

The meeting adjourned with the serving of light refreshments to meet again next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. D. Kirk on Fifth street.

Auto Runs 59 Miles On Gallon Of Gas

Automobile engineers who worked for years in an effort to reduce gasoline consumption have found the solution in a marvelous invention that fits all cars. An actual test made by one of the engineers showed 59 miles on a gallon of gas. Thousands of car owners have already installed this new invention. They not only report amazing gas savings but are also surprised to find quicker pick-up, instant starting, smoother running motors and disappearance of carbon. E.

Its age is a private matter

It is very difficult to discover, by its appearance, how old a Lincoln is. Lincoln believes in making automobiles so beautiful that they are always modern — so durable that they simply won't wear out.
The age of a Lincoln is no one's concern — least of all its owner's.
On the boulevards a Lincoln of last season and the newest model share honors equally with Lincolns years older than either.

No fine is this car that a year or so of use does not perceptibly detract from any of its splendid qualities. Lincoln owners are often men who can, and do, provide the best professional care for their cars. Sometimes such well-kept cars are available at very attractive prices from Lincoln dealers. The wisdom of investing in such a motor car is quite evident, and showed buyers are quick to take advantage of the opportunity.

A few such Lincolns are now to be seen on our door. Every one is in perfect mechanical condition.
We are always glad to demonstrate them to you, without the slightest obligation. Drop in today.

Many Planning To Attend Brotherhood Banquet Friday

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—About 33 members of the Lutheran Brotherhood of the local church are planning to attend the banquet which will be given Friday evening under the auspices of the Beaver Valley Brotherhood association in the Y. M. C. A.
in New Brighton. A. J. Dambach of Fourth street is president of the organization.

The meeting will be known as "Thiel Night" and Rev. Clyde Xander, president of the college, will give the main address. The balance of the evening's entertainment will be contributed by Thiel students. A pleasant evening is anticipated.

John Johnson Is Taken By Death

Pioneer Resident And Former Tax Collector Succumbs To Heart Failure Wednesday

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—John Johnson of Fifth street, pioneer resident of this city, and former tax collector for many years, succumbed to heart failure Wednesday evening. Up to yesterday he had been in fairly good health, but complained of feeling badly all day Wednesday. He was 77 years of age. In addition to his widow, immediate survivors are five sons, William, Robert, Alec, John and George, all of this city, and one daughter, Mrs. William Thompson, of Sharon.

Funeral services will take place
Saturday afternoon at two o'clock from his late home, with Rev. Robert Little of the Methodist church in charge. Interment will take place in the Locust Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Morrow Is Club Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—Mrs.
Charles Morrow of Jefferson street entertained the members of her bridge club and some special guests Wednesday evening at her home. The special guests present were Messrs. Edward McDaniel, C. R. O'Neil, William Beyer, Steve Peck, Herman Wilson, Walter
Whittaker, H. J. Myers and M. L.
Moses.

Four tables of bridge were in play and at the close of a pleasant series of games, score honors for the club went to Mrs. Howard Stewart and Mrs. O. E. Wick. Guest honors went to Mrs. C. R. O'Neil and Mrs. Steve Peck.

Later delicious seasonal refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Charles Stiner and Mrs.
Charles Adams. Halloween decorations were used. In two weeks Mrs.
E. B. Moyer of Glenn avenue will entertain.

Women To Present Pageant At Church

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—Members of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Trinity Lutheran church are preparing a pageant for presentation Sunday evening, November 24. The initial rehearsal was conducted Wednesday afternoon in the church and from all indications the pageant, when completed, will be well worth viewing.

There are 18 characters and the theme is built about the title "The Thank Offering Box Convention."
The action all takes place in one act.
The committee in charge of the pageant comprises Miss Marcia Whittaker, Mrs. Clarence Wallace and Mrs.
J. R. Parkhill.

J. W. Offutt Is Re-Elected Head Of Country Club

Officials And Board Of Directors Conduct Re-Organization Meeting Wednesday

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—At a re-organization meeting which was conducted in the home of J. W. Offutt Wednesday evening he was re-elected president of the Country club.
Mr. Offutt has been a faithful and hard working president for many years and has been largely instrumental in making the club the successful organization it is today.

All the board of directors were present at the meeting and the following chairmen of committees were named: Greens committee, John E.
Powell; houses committee, B. F.
Goodrich; entertainment committee,
B. J. Bell; membership committee,
B. Carothers; golf committee, Ray Johnson and special finance committee, Loring Gelbach.

Fred Loeffler the club pro was elected to serve two more years in his official capacity.

Rev. Delber Clark Is Success Here

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—From the size of crowds packing the little Episcopal church in Ewing Park, Rev. Delber W. Clark of Greenville, who is conducting a series of mission services, is a great success.

His sermon last night was on "What Can a Man Believe" and he stated that the church of today must be inclusive rather than in favor of one thing. Christian faith is best expressed in the Nicene creed, which was adopted in 370 A. D. by the Council of Constantinople, and has remained unchanged through the centuries.

There will be an address this evening at 7:30 and tomorrow's services close the mission with administration of the Holy Sacrament at 7:15 a. m. and evening service at 7:30.

Entertain At Informal Dinner

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Roland Haines of Fourth street entertained a small group of friends informally at dinner Wednesday evening.

The highlight of the menu was a large mess of steamed clams, which, although they took up seats of room on the plates and made resounding bangs when the shells were tossed into the provided receptacles, were most delicious. Being so far inland makes local people appreciate shore dinners now and then.

The balance of the evening was spent socially with cards and music.
Those present were: Capt. and Mrs.
H. J. Jenkins, Mrs. Burton J. Bell and
Rev. Ashton of Beaver Falls.

Mrs. McCandless Is Bridge Club Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—Mrs.
Earl McCandless of Jefferson street entertained the members of the Thursday Bridge Club last evening at her home.

Three tables were in play and special guests were Miss Mary Ruzka, Mrs. Stella Luman, Mrs. Charles Twentier, Mrs. Irvin McDevitt and Mrs. William Milliken.

At the close of a pleasant evening score honors went to Mrs. Wayne Baird, Mrs. Paul Moon, Mrs. Mc-Devitt and Mrs. Milliken.
Halloween decorations were used and a delicious menu closed the meeting. In two weeks Mrs. Joseph Smith of Line avenue will entertain.

Willing Workers Plan For Winter

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—Members of the Willing Workers society of the Trinity Lutheran church conducted a meeting Wednesday afternoon in the church basement. It was to be a special meeting, but owing to the absence of some of the officials the special meeting has been put forward until next Wednesday, which will be an all day meeting.

Yesterday the ladies completed many donations for the coming bazaar in November, and a number of money-making plans for the winter were discussed.

Masquerade Dance At Country Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—All is set for the annual masquerade dance at the Country Club Friday night.
So far a cow-girl, clown, another clown, several Maggies and Jiggs and other characters have signified their intentions of dashing out for a night of merriment.

The Troubadors, an orchestra composed of girls, will provide the music, and put on a clever act or two for the entertainment of the guests.

M. C. B. CLUB.

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—Members of the M. C. B. club are scheduled to meet Friday night with Mrs.
George Moyer of Fountain avenue.

J. W. Humphrey Talks To Club

Quota Club Goes On Record As Unanimously Favoring All Issues Of Bond Project

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 31.—Fifteen members of the Ellwood City Quota club enjoyed a talk by Attorney J.
W. Humphrey club solicitor at their regular dinner meeting Wednesday evening in the dining room of the Methodist church with Mrs. Humphrey as a special guest.

Mr. Humphrey's talk "The Bond Issue" was most interesting and he explained the various issues to the club outlining the reasons for the project. At the conclusion of his address the club went on record as favoring all issues of the proposed bond issue namely: Storm sewers, viaduct, over Second street, community park and the purchase of a central building.

The meeting concluded with a short business session.

West Virginia Jury Deliberates Fate Of Alleged Slayer

(International News Service)
MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va., Oct. 31.—
The jury in whose hands lies the fate of Harry Durbin, 35, Cameron automobile mechanic being tried for first degree murder, resumed deliberations here this morning after it reported at 10 o'clock last night that it could not agree.

Durbin is on trial for the alleged murder of John Dowler 33 of Calis last September 30. Defense counsel based its case on self defense while the prosecution charged that Durbin was a home wrecker who came between Dowler and his wife.

When the Durbin jury left the room work of selecting the jury for the trial of August Kerschka 39, of Benwood. He is charged with the murder of Eli Yorgovitch, 40-year-old Benwood confectioner.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

The Story Of The World War
1914—The First Division in Training

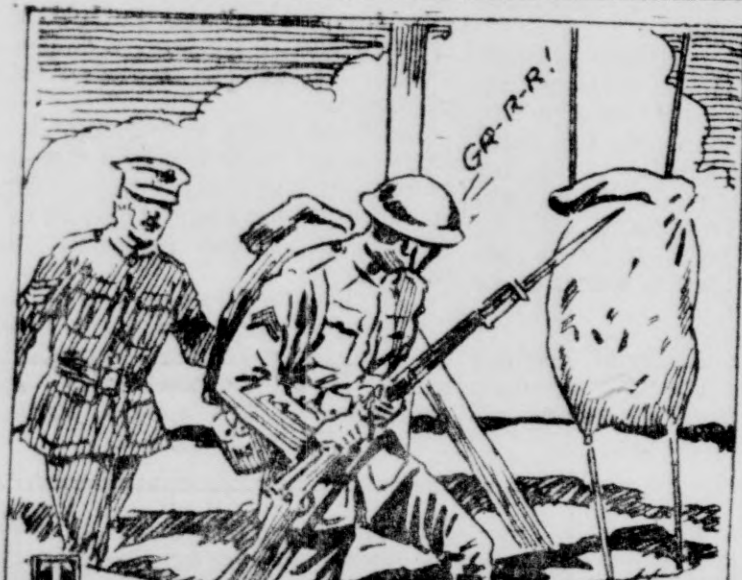

IN THE EARLY FALL OF 1917, WHILE THE NATIONAL GUARD AND NATIONAL ARMY WERE BEGINNING THEIR INTENSIVE TRAINING IN THE UNITED STATES, THE FIRST DIVISION (REGULAR ARMY) WAS COMPLETING ITS INSTRUCTION IN FRANCE UNDER FRENCH AND BRITISH OFFICERS.

LEARNING TO HANDLE THE FRENCH CHAUCHAT ("SHO-SHO") GUN.

UPON THEIR ARRIVAL IN FRANCE IN JUNE AND JULY, 1917, THE UNITS OF THE FIRST DIVISION HAD BEEN ASSIGNED TO VARIOUS CAMPS FOR SPECIALIZED TRAINING. HERE THE AMERICANS WERE TAUGHT THE LATEST METHODS OF TRENCH FIGHTING IN USE ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

TRENCH WARFARE CALLED FOR THE USE OF A NUMBER OF OLD WEAPONS AS WELL AS THOSE OF THE MOST MODERN INVENTION. THE BAYONET WAS STILL RELIED UPON FOR FIGHTING AT CLOSE QUARTERS. THE AMERICANS LEARNED THE LATEST TRICKS OF BAYONET FIGHTING FROM THE BRITISH, WHO HAD DEVELOPED A PARTICULARLY DEADLY STYLE OF FENCING WITH THIS WEAPON.

THE OLD-TIME HAND GRENADE, AFTER BEING CONSIDERED OBSOLETE FOR MORE THAN A HALF-CENTURY, HAD PROVED AN EFFECTIVE WEAPON IN MODERN TRENCH WARFARE. THE AMERICAN DOUGHBOY, ACCUSTOMED FROM HIS EARLY BOYHOOD TO THROWING A BASEBALL, QUICKLY LEARNED TO TOSS GRENADES WITH DEADLY ACCURACY.

Opinion Differs As Battle Night Nears

Jones Believes Firpo Will Score Kayo; Logan Takes Opposite View

RENO ANXIOUS TO MEET LOUIE AGAIN

By ED FRITZ
Tommy Jones, the well known city policeman and judge of boxing contests, believes that if a knockout is scored Monday night at Jolly Bowl the victor will be Henry Firpo and the loser Johnny Burns. Thomas uttered this belief yesterday in an unguarded moment and having lots of respect for Tom's opinion, we're passing it on to the "ring worms" of New Castle.

We were nosin' around for news stories when we happened to collide with the erstwhile lightweight, who now scales about 175 pounds. "Great fight Monday night," smiled Tom, asking: "Who do you think will win?" Having for a year or more abstained from picking victors and losers we adhered to that policy and countered with: "What do you think?"

"Firpo," replied Tom.
"Why?" we asked.
"Burns is an orthodox boxer and Firpo is apt to get a shot at his chin. When he fought Fuller the Niagara Falls boy kept his chin cloaked beneath his shoulder. Burns doesn't protect his jaw as good as Fuller," said Tommy.

"I can't agree with everything you say," we replied and passed on. A large majority of the fans who have seen Firpo and Burns fight McKenna believe that Burns has the edge. He played with McKenna here and while Firpo didn't box circles around him at Cleveland he did beat him by a fat margin. On punch, however, Mr. Firpo seems to have the edge and in science Burns takes the platter of gloves.

The fought entirely different fights. McKenna proved the aggressor with Burns while Firpo forced the fighting with McKenna. Henry has done his niftiest when he assumed an aggressive role and his poorest on the defense. What Firpo and Burns will do when they get into the ring is problematical. A defeat for either will cost the loser pretty pennies.

Logan Sincere.
And now another opinion, far different than that expressed by Mr. Jones. The opinion, broadcast in the presence of the writer (and probably intended as a slam) was uttered by a disciple of Gladstone, not a manufacturer of bugs but rather legal phrases, etc. The person who made the prediction is none other than Attorney Edwin K. Logan, a confirmed "ring worm"—ringsider, too.

He met Firpo at a local hotel, having known him since he chased Red Jadabird into spasms. Edwin felt it his duty to give Firpo a warning note. "I feel just too bad for you," he said as Henry eyed him. "You are being led like a lamb to slaughter. I do not understand how Jimmy Dunn came to allow himself to be inveigled into agreeing to you to fight Burns."

Firpo smiled and like all pugilists passed off the warning without much to say, but Edwin wouldn't have it that way, as he added: "After next Monday night you will come to me and say: 'You're the only friend I had in New Castle. You told me the truth.' At this moment Jimmy Dunn came along and hearing the statement, told Logan: 'I'll do Henry's worrying until Monday night.'"

Red, the clothing salesman, is one who believes the fracas will be a toss-up. He's not picking a winner but generally speaking says: "What a card! What a card! Burns, Firpo, Corsey, Mazzeo, Severio, Reno and the rest of em." But passing on to you what the bulk of the fans believe is this: They believe that Firpo is in for a rather busy evening's evenin' and that he is up against it.

Romeo Off Card.
Romeo Pacelli, local featherweight pugilist, will not fight Martin Mazzeo of Cleveland. Young Corsey, Canton, who has been going very good and who recently fought U. S. Carpenter and defeated Eddie Brandon, will take his place. Several times Romeo has been carded and through some circumstance of his own volition has brought about his removal from the card.

He agreed to fight Mazzeo more than a week ago. Knowing this he accepted a chance to substitute against the hard hitting Kenny Hargraves at a weight above that he boxes at here. The Motor Square bout was officially called a draw but Harry Keck of the Sun Tele gave the bout to Hargraves. During the bout Romeo sustained a swollen eye and alleges his hand was hurt. Last night he said he could not box Mazzeo Monday night.

It is necessary at various times to make substitutions, but in no case has the bowl been responsible and as a result of Romeo's act and not that of the bowl he will not box here Monday night. Today it was said that he signed a contract with Frank Ross last night. According to the contract Ross is to manage Romeo.

The big "it" of the card is expected when Louie Severio, Meadville, and Al Reno, Youngstown, clash. In their first set to Al walked from his corner, hit Louie on the chin and he went down. When he got up he was flattened again. He got up a second time and was sent down a third time for nine. He stalled and hugged through the first until the bell rang.

He received a lot of valuable "seconding" from the crafty Jimmy Dunn during the minute's intermission and jockeyed Reno around in the second. He worked Reno to the ropes, hit him with a right on the jaw then sunk a terrific left to the pit of the stomach. Al sank like a ton of brick and Referee George Chip counted off the 10 seconds while Al laid agonized on the floor.

Two Fast "Whirls".
After the fight Mr. Reno appeared at the payoff window and asked the writer to see that he got a second chance. "I showed in the first that I would fight but anyone is apt to get tumbled. Put us in there again and I might even win," he pleaded. As long as a loser puts up a good battle the fans will feel satisfied so the pair have been matched again.

The four-round whirls ought to be filled with spicy action. Frankie Lance, a local bantamweight, has been having things easy so he will be given a harder assignment Monday night. His opponent will be Tony Bodda, who held Marshall Crochette to a draw. Billy Murphy, the Ryantown Polish junior welterweight, who has three kayoes, meets Harry Thomas, a rough Cleveland lad.

On paper every bout appears like a natural match. Bantamweights, featherweights, junior lightweights, junior welterweights and middleweights make up the versatile card. Each of the boxers has shown good either here or elsewhere and with Burns and Firpo in the spotlight role a regular Jolly Bowl crowd is expected when 8:15 p. m. rings Monday.

Tony Canzoneri Defeats Loayza

Canzoneri Knocking At Mandell's Door For Championship Bout

(International News Service).
CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Tony Canzoneri today stands at the lightweight championship door of Sammy Mandell by virtue of his victory over Stanislaus Loayza, the Chilean bantamweight, last night.

Canzoneri, however, bears evidence that he had been in a contest. The New Yorker's left eye was cut when he left the ring and his body glowed red as evidence of the pummeling Loayza administered.

The judges unanimously gave Canzoneri seven of the 10 rounds. But the margin was close in all of them. A flock of right-hand punches to Tony's chin gave the Chilean the fourth and seventh rounds by wide margins.

Vicious infighting featured the battle. Neither was knocked down, although both landed stiff left swings and right crosses, with Canzoneri getting a shade the better of it.

Repeated applause welcomed Loayza's willingness to stand up in the face of Canzoneri's slashing offensive, which grew more vicious as the battle progressed.

The two fought the wind-up of Jack Dempsey's second promotional venture here, which drew 7,843 spectators.

Louie Kaplan won a technical knockout over Eddie Wolf, the Memphis lightweight, in the seventh round of the semi-wind-up.

Army Passing "Buck" In Gridiron Game

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The Army put squarely up to the Navy Wednesday the continued rupture of athletic relations between West Point and Annapolis, following a futile conference between Rear Admiral S. S. Robison, superintendent of the Naval Academy, and Maj. Gen. William R. Smith, superintendent of West Point.

A formal statement issued by Gen. Smith said the Army is still desirous of renewing athletic relations and "hopes that the Navy will in time agree to meet us on the gridiron man for man as do all other colleges."

Bethany Prepares For Westminster Game On Saturday

Coach Nuss Desires To Beat Titan Eleven In Game At New Wilmington

BETHANY, W. Va., Oct. 31.—With the defeat by Waynesburg a matter of gridiron history, Bethany College huskies have turned their eyes toward the Westminster struggle, which will feature the tri-state district games for November 2 at New Wilmington.

Coaches Nuss and Shoemaker are looking for no easy snap in the game with the Presbyterians. On the contrary, they expect to meet some of the stiffest competition of the season when they meet with the blue and white aggregation.

Ghosts of former hectic combats will stalk the field next Saturday as the Bisons meet with the Pennsylvania state forces. Memories of the thrilling battle of last year will stir the breasts offortunates who saw that clash.

Decisive defeat of the Westminster gridders would place the Bisons well up among the leading elevens in the tri-state. With an improvement in play being shown day by day, the position the Bisons will hold at the end of the season depends on their ability to get safely by Westminster.

Out come of the Westminster game will make or break the Bisons for the fall campaign, and the possibilities are that the eleven will unleash all the football they have in their own power.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

Gabby Street has been named manager of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Tag Phillips is said by Fred Alger of the Post-Gazette to have received a count of 10 seconds in about five when he was knocked out by Joe Trippie last night at McKeesport.

Knute Rockne will not accompany Notre Dame for their next two games. He will accept his physician's order and take a two weeks' rest.

Teddy Welsh, Joey Angelo and Chet Smallwood must honor contracts before they can box other than the clubs with which they signed, according to the state boxing commission.

Edie McGorty, former middleweight, who fought George Chip and all the best, is battling for life in a Milwaukee sanitarium. He has cancer of the throat.

Dan Howley has signed a contract to manage the Cincinnati Reds.

Carl Mays, foremost underhand pitcher, has been released by the Giants. Probabilities are some other major league team will accept his services.

The boxing commission yesterday adopted a rule whereby matchers proposed must be submitted two weeks in advance to the commission.

Gabby Street Is Named Manager Of St. Louis Cards

Former Veteran Big League Catcher For Walter Johnson Is To Be Manager

(International News Service).
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 31.—The roster of major league baseball managers boasted of a new name—Gabby Street.

Sam Breadon, president of the St. Louis Nationals announced that Gabby for years catcher to Walter Johnson had been named manager of the Cardinals to succeed Bill McKenchie.

Street who has been coach and scout of the Cards for several years will sign on a one-year contract.

Street is the fifth manager of the Cardinals in the last four years. He is well liked by St. Louis fans, knows baseball and should do a good job of boxing the Red Birds. He has been in baseball since 1900 but is taking charge of his first major league team. However he managed minor league outfits for many years and turned in a good record.

Good Scores Made In Match Games

New Castle duckpin bowlers were going "hot" last evening. Three young men hit 215 or better in games rolled in match play.

Percy White rolling with The News Printers in the City league against the Lehigh Cement team had the fine score of 247 in the first game of the match. The News team won the first game with a total of 811 pins thanks to Percy. Dean Fraser rolling the third game for the Lehigh knocked down 215 pins for a fine score that helped the Day team to lick The News boys. The Lehigh took two out of three from The News.

In the American Can company and Bell Telephone match game in the City league the American Can team in the third and final game of the match rolled 627 to 626 for the Phone boys that's rather close.

In the Industrial league match against the P. and L. E. team young Panas rolling with the Shenango Tin Plate company team hit 244 the final game and the other four men also hit high scores winding up with a total of 950 for the third game, this is believed to be a local alley record for a five man duckpin team. Four men rolled over 180.

Game Friday May Be Played Upon Soggy Gridiron

Gardner Anxiously Scans Skies For Sign Of "Fair Weather" For Game Friday

Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner of Senior High school was anxiously scanning the skies today for a ray of sunshine. Tomorrow night, the New Castle High football team plays Bellevue at the stadium. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

Will Gardner's luck desert him this time? New Castle High has had beautiful weather for the first few games of the season. Not once this year has the red and black team been called upon to play on a sloppy gridiron. Tomorrow night, it may be different.

Bellevue High will bring a 7-0 team to Franklin field for the seventh contest of the year. New Castle will have to play a snappy brand of football to down the Allegheny County eleven.

It's an optimistic country, according to a visiting British journalist. He must have ignored the coaches' opinions on the sports pages.—The Adrain Daily Telegram.

Valuable Securities Found In Automobile By Garage Mechanics

Securities Worth An Estimated Value Of $150,000 Returned To Girl Owner

(International News Service)
NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 31.—After reposing for months beneath the rear seat of an automobile that had been traded in for a new car, gilt edged securities valued at $150,000 at current market prices, today were in possession of Miss Alice D. Laughlin, daughter of the late J. B. Laughlin, Pittsburgh steel magnate.

The car had stood for some time with other old cars in a garage here mechanics who began dismantling the traded car discovered the securities in a soiled wrapper in the bottom of a tool box.

They were traced to Miss Laughlin and returned to her at Hyannisport, where she made her summer home with her mother.

It was believed the bonds, for which a search had been conducted, accidentally slipped beneath the seat early last summer, when Miss Laughlin was preparing to leave Pittsburgh for Hyannisport.

New Wilmington To Play Bessemer

Class B Game To Occur On College Field On Friday

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 31.—New Wilmington high school football team will meet Bessemer Friday on College field. The game between these two schools has always been one of the best of the season and the game Friday should be no exception.

Although Bessemer has by far the more impressive record, Coach Karsten believes this is one of the games when his team will come through and give Bessemer one of the hardest fights they have had this season.

All season Coach Karsten has been handicapped by so few men being out for the team. Injuries have also played their part in cutting down the squad. This week, however, marks the first time that he will be able to use his full strength. One of the big disappointments of the season is the way the letter men have been playing.

There are only a few men who have played the game they are capable of playing. Joe Brownlee, a lineman, has turned in the best performances of any of the line. This is his first year of football and he has played a more consistent game than any of the veterans.

Another steady player has been Paul Spears. Very few teams have been able to circle his end of the line. Of the backfield men, Hartwell and Neal are turning in the best games. This week's game will be a test of what New Wilmington can do against a far better team than they are.

BIBLE CLASS TO CONVENE AT 7:30

Frank Geiger will teach the Sunday school lesson at the City Rescue Mission this evening at 7:30. All are invited to attend this helpful and instructive service.

GOOFY MOVIES

WELL, WELL, WELL, IF IT ISN'T DUSTY ROADS—I'M YOUR UNCLE DUDLEY

HOWDY, UNCLE DUDLEY!

YOU LOOK JUST LIKE YOUR MOTHER—IT'S A SHAME SHE DIED WHEN YOU WERE SO YOUNG!

YES, I CAN HARDLY REMEMBER HER—

UNCLE DUDLEY PLAYED BY.....BULL CANINE.....

AND DO I LOOK LIKE YOU THOUGHT I WOULD??

YEA... I BELIEVE YOU DO?

WELL, DO YOU THINK YOU ARE GOING TO LIKE LIVING HERE WITH ME?

YEA—IF I DON'T GET LONESOME FOR SOME OF MY OLD FRIENDS BACK HOME!

DON'T YOU WORRY—I KNOW SOMEONE THAT IS ANXIOUS TO MEET YOU AND WILL DO A LOT TO HELP YOU FROM GETTING LONESOME!

WHO IS THIS LITTLE ONE THAT WANTS TO MEET DUSTY?

Trustee's Sale In Bankruptcy
Pursuant to order of Edwin M. Underwood, Referee in Bankruptcy, the undersigned Trustee in Bankruptcy of Antonio Lawrence, also known as Antonio De Lorenzo, will offer at public sale, on Monday, November 18th, 1929, at 10 o'clock A. M., on the premises, all the lands hereinafter described, located in the Third Ward, City of New Castle, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows:

PARCELS NOS. 1 and 2 as described in petition, bounded north by Croton Avenue, 60 feet; east by other lands, now or formerly of Antonio Lawrence, 148.33 feet; south by an alley, 42.49 feet; and west by lands of Harry L. Allen, 237.33 feet, being known as lots 236 and 237 on Section 31 of the Official Survey of the City of New Castle.

Subject, however, to the lien of the following mortgages: (1) Mortgage of Wm. K. Huges, dated Oct. 10, 1924, and recorded in Lawrence County Mfg. Book 141, Page 118. (2) Mortgage of Wm. K. Huges and Pearl B. Huges, dated Mch. 24, 1925, recorded in Mfg. Book 151, Page 370. (3) Mortgage of Wm. K. Huges, dated Nov. 4, 1925, and recorded in Mfg. Book 184, Page 70. Total amount of principal $14,000.00, with accrued interest. But freed and discharged of all other liens and encumbrances.

ALSO PARCEL NO. 3 as described in petition; bounded north by Croton Ave., 15 feet; east by an alley, 15.5 feet; south by an alley, 15.5 feet; west by lands of Libero Valente, et ux, 28 feet; and west by an alley, 40 feet, being lot 208-A on Section 31 of the Official Survey of the City of New Castle.

The last two parcels being sold subject to mortgage of Dollar Savings Association of Lawrence County, dated March 5, 1928, and recorded in Mfg. Book Vol. 18, Page 112; amount of first mortgage principal $1257.00; but freed and discharged of all other liens and encumbrances.

The mortgage liens of Wm. K. Huges and Pearl B. Huges, and the Dollar Savings Association of Lawrence County, against the said parcels, to remain undisturbed and the purchasers to take the properties subject to the terms and conditions of the said mortgages.

Will also offer certain household goods and store equipment at the same time.

TERMS OF SALE: Ten per cent cash on day of sale, and balance on confirmation of sale by the Court. The Trustee reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to adjourn the sale from time to time as the occasion may require.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Stock Prices Higher At Market Opening

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Stimulated by several encouraging factors, prices on the New York Stock Exchange opened sharply higher today on top of the 1 to 36 point advance of yesterday.

The Exchange opened at noon today, instead of 10 a. m., as customary, in order to allow Wall Street's man power to recuperate from the physical exhaustion resulting from the recent tremendously heavy markets.

Trading was heavy at the outset. Thirty thousand shares of radio opened at 51 1/2, up 5 1/2. Ten thousand shares of Columbia Gas opened at 89 1/2, up 11. Ten thousand shares of International Nickel opened at 41, up 3.

American Tel. and Tel., which regarded a 36 point gain yesterday, advanced 9 points at the opening today at 240.

United States Steel, one of the pivotal issues, opened up 5 points at 190. Forty thousand shares of Consolidated Gas opened at 119 1/2, up 9 1/2. Twenty five thousand shares of Union Carbide opened at 100, up 10, and 15,000 shares of United Corporation sold at 38 1/2, up 3 1/2.

Other opening prices included: St. Paul preferred 44, up 3; Pan American B 63, up 2 1/2; New Haven 120, up 9; Studebaker 52, up 5 1/2; Pennsylvania Railroad 96, up 5 1/2.

Southern Pacific 131, up 2; General Electric 251, up 4; Sinclair 30, up 2 and American Can 140, up 9 1/2.

Factors which had a recuperative effect on the market included the following:

1.—An army of investors all over the country were buying stocks at what they regarded as "bargain prices."

2.—Announcement from London today that the Bank of England had reduced its discount rate from 6 1/2 to 6 per cent. This showed the critical money situation in London had passed and that the Bank of England was no longer standing guard over its gold supply.

3.—John D. Rockefeller, Sr., the "big six" bankers and other prominent financiers were or "the buying side" of the market at present.

4.—Industrial companies were issuing special and extra dividends and big American corporations were announcing that their earnings for the first nine months of this year were higher than the corresponding period last year.

Prices on the New York Curb Exchange were also sweeping higher. American and Foreign Power opened on the curb at 79, up 3 1/2.

Both the stock and curb tickers began to run behind, so heavy was the volume of trading.

A total of 2,452,100 shares of stock were traded in during the first half hour on the big board.

Industries To Render Report In Chest Drive

Expect Goal For Year Will Be Neared When Reports Are Turned In Friday Noon

SPLENDID RESPONSE MADE BY LABORING MEN

When the reports from the various industrial establishments of the city are rendered at the Community Chest report luncheon in the Y. M. C. A. Friday at noon, it is expected that the goal of $69,500, which is necessary to carry on the work in the city during the coming year, will be heard, officials in the campaign stated today.

The local industrial establishments are better organized to carry on the solicitation this year than ever before, each plant taking charge of the work of soliciting the individual employees under the direction of the superintendents and managers.

The amount of money contributed by each plant is expected to be reflected in the thorough manner with which this task is now being carried out. Preliminary reports which were rendered Tuesday were most encouraging and presaged a greater amount at Friday's report meeting.

It is expected that that but very little work will be necessary to make a final gathering up of the loose ends in the campaign, after the reports are submitted Friday.

Workers from the Community Chest agencies have been carrying on the greater portion of the task of soliciting the citizens of the city in this campaign, and they have contributed much valuable time to this effort, in addition to subscribing themselves.

In addition, each worker pays for his own luncheon at the report meetings, thus eliminating this expense in the campaign.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations
Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Now that the Slabtown Halloween celebration is over, the one in the downtown district can go ahead, and tonight's the night. From the prize list, it appears that nearly everybody can get a prize. And if you don't get a prize you will get a lot of fun. And if you don't get a lot of fun, speak to the chief of police about it.

Had to miss the South Side celebration and instead of seeing a parade, gave a lot of good food a home at the D. A. R. banquet. The ladies do everything well, and the banquet was just another proof of it.

The seat given me was with the pages and this conference has a lot of interesting pages. Not a blank page in the outfit, and it wouldn't take many such pages to make a book.

Tonight not only offers the Halloween celebration, but also Secretary of Labor James J. Davis in the Cathedral. You may not want to miss the parade, but you can also hear the secretary, as his address will not start until after 9 o'clock.

After observing half a dozen conventions in this city, it is no idle boast to say that New Castle can take care of them. Every one of them has been satisfactory and every one of them has attracted a lot of favorable comment from the delegates. Hotel accommodations, convention facilities and the general hospitality of the people have advertised New Castle a lot, and you can put this bouquet on the piano if you wish.

December 26 will challenge every one of us. The Pennsylvania State Educational Association will be here, and not in hundreds, but thousands. This convention means work for everybody and if you haven't offered a room for a delegate to F. L. Orth, principal of the Senior High school, do so now.

This colyum will be a "Texas leaguer" today. Can't be in one spot for a couple of days and then expect to know anything, or at least enough to fill a colyum.

To which crack the cynical young lady over across the room remarks that moving around wouldn't help it much. Meow.

Blacksmith At 97 Is Rebuilding Shop

(International News Service)
DUBLIN, Ind., Oct. 31. — Longfellow's description, "the smith, a mighty man was he," mostly apply to John Hawkins, of Middleboro, Ind., near here, who in his ninety-seventh year is preparing to re-establish his blacksmith shop which was destroyed by fire.

Friends and neighbors esteem him so highly that they are offering a subscription to set him back up in business.

Rheumatism Pains Stop in 7 minutes

I want to say, so that all may know, that MUSCLETONE has done for me more good for my sore and stiff muscles than anything I ever used.—Mark H. Duval, Menasha, Pa.

Anyone who honestly wants to end the pains of rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica or neuralgia can do so. Science has found a new way to end muscular agony and distress so amazingly speedy—and safe—it seems almost miraculous. Pain actually stops in 7 to 10 minutes. Quickly, accumulated toxins absorb and complete relief is found even in severe conditions.

MUSCLETONE acts by innervation. Nothing is taken internally. No drugs—no doing. Just simple liquid applied directly to the troubled muscle or joint. Yet it acts invariably and amazingly. And—this is important—it never burns or irritates. All druggists have MUSCLETONE for $1.00.

WHERE GENTLEMEN FIGHT.

Two members of the Arts Set—Percy Crosby and Jack Farnsworth—became involved in heated debate the other evening at their inn. One word led to another and all words led to the conclusion that "vindication" could not be achieved only by taking a swing at the other's features. Crosby led the way to the street and proceeded east several blocks followed by his antagonist. Finally Farnsworth quickened his pace and came abreast the other.

"Isn't this a good place as any?" he demanded, rudely.

"Never," replied Crosby, "with the gravity no mere water drinker ever attained. We'll go over to Fifth avenue and have it. When I fight I fight like a gentleman."

Investigate Big White Slave Ring In Eastern Cities

Believe New York Syndicate Furnishes Eastern Section Of Country With Women

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Operatives of the federal government today were pushing an investigation into the ramifications of a white slave ring, following the arrest of a man known as Albert Lucka.

Lucka was arrested after federal agents had succeeded in decoding a message from Boston which requested that five girls, two of them blondes, be sent to the New England city.

He is being held in $20,000 bail to assure his appearance in court after a federal grand jury has passed on his case.

Assistant United States Attorney George J. Minter said a syndicate of white slave ring is in operation in this section of the country, controlled by a rich and powerful New York syndicate.

Hundreds of girls, Minter said, are recruited from all sections of the country and placed in Pennsylvania, New York and Canada.

Lucka denied all connection with the white slave ring and the two murders attributed to it by police of Boston and New York.

Oil City Youth Tries Suicide

Rather Than Go Back To Reform School Youth Attempts To Take His Life

(International News Service)
OIL CITY, Pa., Oct. 31.—Fred Hazlett, 13, of Oil City is in the hospital here today recovering from an attempt at suicide made, he said, because he would rather die than be returned to Morganza reform school.

The lad escaped from the reform school a month ago and was arrested here yesterday. When he was placed in jail he cut his throat and neck with broken glass. He had swallowed none of the glass, examination at the hospital disclosed, and is expected to recover.

Animal Cemetery For Indianapolis

(International News Service)
INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 31.—This city will soon have an animal cemetery as well as a hospital for sick dogs, cats, horses and other animals by terms of the will of Leo Kahn, former president of the American Sanitary Lock Corporation, who left his fortune of more than $500,000 for those purposes.

Both the cemetery and hospital will be operated like the city hospital for human beings. Cemetery lots will be sold to prosperous owners of pets, but the forlorn may have their pets buried free. In like manner the rich will pay for their animal's treatment in the hospital while the poor will obtain it for nothing.

It is proposed that farm land of from 15 to 20 acres be bought near Indianapolis for the hospital and cemetery.

Suggestions for the hospital came to Mr. and Mrs. Kahn from Mrs. Vernon Castle McLaughlin, of Chicago, Mrs. Kahn said.

New Trial Denied Two Convicted In Income Tax Cases

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 31.—A new trial has been denied David W. Kuhn, Pittsburgh government coal administrator in this district during the World war, and his brother Attorney A. Kuhn, New York, who were convicted in December, 1928 of filing fraudulent tax returns. The opinion was handed down by Judge F. P. Schoonmaker.

The convicted men are each liable to a $10,000 fine or a year in jail or both under the terms of the income tax law.

Tobacco Company Increases Dividend

Value of newspaper advertising is reflected in the announcement today of an extra cash dividend of two dollars per share in addition to the regular two dollar dividend by the American Tobacco Co.

The enormous sales growth of Lucky Strike cigarettes during the past year, which is attributed directly to American newspaper advertising, is responsible largely for the increased dividends declared, officials of the American Tobacco Company state.

There being a growing demand for Lucky Strikes over other brands of cigarettes in the market.
